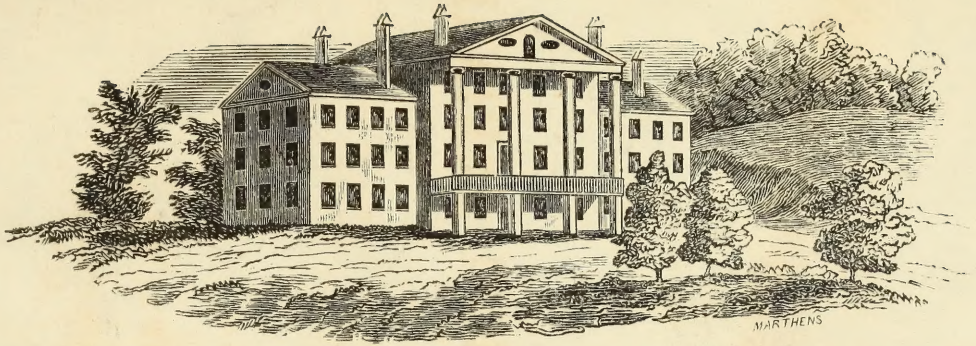
CATALOGUE

OF THE

WESTERN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY,

ALLEGHENY, PA.

1843-44.



WESTERN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

This edifice occupies the summit of a considerable hill, known by the name of the "Seminary Hill," directly opposite the confluence of the Monongahela and Allegheny rivers, on the Northern side. From this point, the prospect is exceedingly rich and picturesque, commanding an entire view of the two cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, a number of adjacent villages, and the three rivers of Allegheny, Monongahela and Ohio, with their beautiful and variegated scenery.

TERMS OF ADMISSION, &C.

Every Student applying for admission to the Seminary, shall produce satisfactory testimonials that he possesses good natural talents, and is of a prudent and discreet deportment; that he is in full communion with some regular church; that he has passed through a regular course of academical study; or, wanting this, he shall submit himself to an examination in regard to the branches of literature taught in such a course.

Term of Study.

There is but one Session in each year—commencing on the first of October, and continuing to the middle of June. It is very desirable that every Student should be present at the opening of the Session. Three years embrace the full course.

Expenses.

The whole expense of a Session, including Board, Washing. Fuel, Room Rent, Lights and Use of Library, is about Eighty-Five Dollars. No charge for Tuition.

Rooms.

Rooms in the Seminary Edifice are furnished by churches and individuals, free of expense to the Students for furniture.

Library.

There are nearly five thousand volumes.

Manual Labor.

There is a Workshop provided with tools for the use of those who desire to labor.

Incidental Privileges.

Abundant opportunities for religious effort are afforded in Sabbath Schools, Bible Classes, etc. in the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny and their vicinities.

In making out the list of Alumni, a blank has, in many cases been left in the column indicating the length of time in the Seminary; and in some few cases, the place of residence is omitted. This is owing to want of exact information, the Register being, in such instances, imperfect. The next meeting of the Alumni will afford an opportunity to supply these omissions, and to correct any mistakes which may have occurred,—which it is believed are very few. Where a student from ill health, or other causes, is known not to have entered the ministry, his name is left out of the catalogue.

TERMS OF ADMISSION.

Every student applying for admission into the Seminary, shall produce satisfactory testimonials that he possesses good natural talents, and is of a prudent and discreet deportment; that he is in full communion with some regular church; that he has passed through a regular course of academical study; or, wanting this, he shall submit himself to an examination in regard to the branches of literature taught in such a course.

Students coming from other Theological Seminaries are required to present certificates of their good standing and regular dismission, before they can be received.

TERM OF STUDY.

There is but one session in each year, commencing on the first of Octobor, and continuing to the middle of June. It is very desirable that every student should be present at the opening of the session. Three years embrace the full course.

EXPENSES.

The whole expense of a session, including board, washing, fuel, room-rent, lights, and use of Library, is from Eighty to Eighty-five dollars. No charge for tuition.

ROOMS.

Rooms in the Seminary edifice are furnished by churches and individuals, free of expense to the students for furniture.

LIBRARY.

The Library consists of nearly five thousand volumes, many of which are rare and valuable.

INCIDENTAL PRIVILEGES.

Abundant opportunities for religious effort are afforded in Sabbath schools, Bible classes, &c., in the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny and their vicinities. Many facilities are also enjoyed of becoming acquainted with the condition and wants of the great valleys of the West, where the harvest is truly plenteous, but the laborers are few.

Original Essays are required throughout the whole course, under the rules of the Institution.

Resident graduates and licentiates may attend, at their option, in any of the departments.

The Western Theological Seminary was established by a resolution of the General Assembly, of the Presbyterian Church, in 1825. Under this resolution, Gen. Andrew Jackson of Tennessee, Hon. Benjamin Mills of Kentucky, Hon. John Thompson of Ohio, and the Rev. Obadiah Jennings and the Rev. Andrew Wylie of Pennsylvania, were appointed a committee to report on a favorable location for the institution. Several sites were offered to the committee, and by them reported to the Assembly.

After very full discussion and deliberation, the present location was determined upon by the Assembly of 1827.

In the fall of the same year (1827) the Institution was opened with a class of four young men. Since that period to the present, upwards of Two Hundred students have prosecuted their Theological Course, in whole or in part, at this Seminary; of these seventeen have consecrated themselves to the work of Foreign Missions, in different and distant parts of the world; others have acted as Domestic Missionaries in the destitute regions of our own country; while a large portion of them are settled as pastors, throughout the "great west."

TERMS OF ADMISSION, &c.

Every student applying for admission into the Seminary, shall produce satisfactory testimonials that he possesses good natural talents, and is of a prudent and discreet deportment; that he is in full communion with some regular church; that he has passed through a regular course of academic study; or, wanting this, he shall submit himself to an examination in regard to the branches of literature taught in such a course.

THIRD YEAR.

Polemic Theology.
Ecclesiastical History continued.
Constitutional History of the Presbyterian Church.
Church Government and Discipline.
Pastoral Theology.

Original Essays are required throughout the whole course, under the rules of the Institution.

Resident graduates and licentiates may attend, at their option, in any of the departments.

The Western Theological Seminary was established by a Resolution of the General Assembly, of the Presbyterian Church, in 1825. Under this Resolution, General Andrew Jackson of Tennessee, Hon. Benjamin Mills of Kentucky, Hon. John Thompson of Ohio, the Rev. Obadiah Jennings and the Rev. Andrew Wylie of Pennsylvania, were appointed a committee to report on a favorable location for the Institution. Several sites were offered to the committee, and by them reported to the Assembly.

After a very full discussion and deliberation, the present location was determined upon by the Assembly of 1827.

In the fall of the same year (1827) the Institution was opened with a class of four young men. Since that period to the present, upwards of Two hundred students have prosecuted their Theological Course, in whole or in part, at this Seminary; of these, eighteen have consecrated themselves to the work of Foreign Missions, in different and distant parts of the world; others have acted as Domestic Missionaries in the destitute regions of our own country; while a large portion of them are settled as pastors, throughout the "great west."

TERMS OF ADMISSION, &c.

Every Student applying for admission into the Seminary, shall produce satisfactory testimonials, that he possesses good natural talents, and is of a prudent and discreet deportment; that he is in full communion with some regular church; that he has passed through a regular course of academic study; or, wanting this, he shall submit himself to an examination in regard to the branches of literature taught in such a course.

Students coming from other Theological Seminaries, are required to present certificates of their good standing and regular dismission, before they can be received.

There is but one Session in each year, commencing on the 4th Monday of August, and continuing to the second week of May. It is very desirable that every student should be present at the opening of the session. Three years embrace the full course.

Rooms in the Seminary Edifice are furnished by the churches and individuals, free of expense to the students, for furniture.

The Library consists of nearly five thousand volumes, many of which are rare and valuable.

Abundant opportunities for religious effort are afforded in Sabbath Schools, Bible Classes, &c. in the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, and their vicinities. Many facilities are also enjoyed of becoming acquainted with the condition and wants of the great valleys of the West, where the harvest truly is plenteous, but the laborers are few.

Original Essays are required throughout the whole course, under the rules of the Institution.

Resident graduates and licentiates may attend, at their option, in any of the departments.

The Western Theological Seminary was established by a Resolution of the General Assembly, of the Presbyterian Church, in 1825.—Under this Resolution, General Andrew Jackson of Tennessee, Hon. Benjamin Mills of Kentucky, Hon. John Thompson of Ohio, the Rev. Obadiah Jennings and the Rev, Andrew Wylie of Pennsylvania, were appointed a committee to report on a favorable location for the Institution. Several sites were offered to the committee, and by them reported to the Assembly.

After a very full discussion and deliberation, the present location was determined upon by the Assembly of 1827.

In the fall of the same year (1827) the Institution was opened with a class of four young men. Since that period to the present, upwards of two hundred and fifty students have prosecuted their Theological Course, whole or in part, at this Seminary; of these, nineteen have consecrated themselves to the work of Foreign Missions, in different and distant parts of the world; others have acted as Domestic Missionaries in the destitute regions of our own country; while a large portion of them are settled as pastors, throughout the "Great West."

TERMS OF ADMISSION, &c.

Every student applying for admission into the Seminary, shall produce satisfactory testimonials, that he possesses good natural talents, and is of a prudent and discreet deportment; that he is in full communion with some regular church; that he has passed through a regular course of academic study; or, wanting this, he shall submit himself to an examination in regard to the branches of literature taught in such a course.

Students coming from other Theological Seminaries, are required to present certificates of their good standing and regular dismission, before they can be received. And those who have studied privately are expected to bring certificates from some officer of the Presbytery under whose care they are, of their state of progress, in order to their regular admission into the advanced classes.

There is but one Session in each year, commencing on the 4th Monday of August, and continuing to the second week of May. It is very desirable that every student should be present at the opening of the session. Three years embrace the full course.

Rooms in the Seminary Edifice are furnished by the churches and individuals, free of expense to the students, for furniture. Contingent fund, ten dollars.

The Library consists of about five thousand volumes, many of which are rare and valuable.

Abundant opportunities for religious effort are afforded in Sabbath Schools, Bible Classes, &c., in the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, and their vicinities. Many facilities are also enjoyed of becoming acquainted with the condition and wants of the great valleys of the West, where the harvest truly is plenteous, but the laborers are few.

The Western Theological Seminary was established by a Resolution of the General Assembly, of the Presbyterian Church, in 1825. Under this Resolution, General Andrew Jackson of Tennessee, Hon. Benjamin Mills of Kentucky, Hon. John Thompson of Ohio, the Rev. Obadiah Jennings and the Rev. After very full discussion and deliberation, the present location was determined upon by the Assembly of 1827.

In the fall of the same year (1827) the Institution was opened with a class of four young men. Since that period to the present, upwards of two hundred and seventy students have prosecuted their Theological Course, in whole or in part, at this Seminary; of these, nineteen have consecrated themselves to the work of Foreign Missions, in different and distant parts of the world; others have acted as Domestic Missionaries in the destitute regions of our own country; while a large portion of them are settled as pastors, throughout the "Great West."

TERMS OF ADMISSION, &c.

Every student applying for admission into the Seminary, shall produce satisfactory testimonials, that he possesses good natural talents, and is of a prudent and discreet deportment; that he is in full communion with some regular church; that he has passed through a regular course of academic study; or, wanting this, he shall submit himself to an examination in regard to the branches of literature taught in such a course.

And those who have studied privately are expected to bring certificates from some officer of the Presbytery under whose care they are, of their state of progress, in order to their regular admission into the advanced classes.

There is but one Session in each year, commencing on the 4th Monday of August, and continuing to the second week of May. It is very desirable that every student should be present at the opening of the session. Three years embrace the full course.

Rooms in the Seminary Edifice are furnished by churches and individuals, free of expense to the students, for furniture.

Contingent fund, ten dollars.

The Library consists of about five thousand volumes, many of which are rare and valuable.

Abundant opportunities for religious effort are afforded in Sabbath Schools, Bible Classes, &c. in the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, and their vicinities: and the students being expected to connect themselves with some evangelical church in these cities, during their course of study, and to perform all the duties of regular church members, have the advantage of a complete pastoral training, and a most valuable experience, added to the attainment of piety and solid learning. The location of a Theological Seminary in the midst of populous cities, is shown, by actual results, to be even more beneficial in preparation for the ministry, than a similar location for the schools of Medicine and Law. The enterprize and commerce which connect these cities with the remotest regions of the West, and the throng communication with every important place in these vast valleys, afford every facility also for acquaintance with western character, and with the condition and wants of this illimitable field, where the harvest truly is plenteous, but the laborers are few.

Original Essays and Oral Discussions are required throughout the whole course, under the rules of the Institution.

Resident Graduates and Licentiates may attend, at their option, any of the departments.

The Western Theological Seminary was established by a Resolution of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, in 1825. Under this Resolution, General Andrew Jackson, of Tennessee; Hon. Benjamin Mills, of Kentucky; Hon. John Thompson, of Ohio; the Rev. Obadiah Jennings, and the Rev. Andrew Wylie, of Pennsylvania, were appointed a committee to report on a favorable location for the Institution. Several sites were offered to the committee, and by them reported to the Assembly.

After very full discussion and deliberation, the present location was determined upon by the Assembly of 1827.

In the fall of the same year (1827) the Institution was opened with a class of four young men. Since that period to the present, nearly three hundred students have prosecuted their Theological Course, in whole or in part, at this Seminary; of these, nineteen have consecrated themselves to the work of Foreign Missions, in different and distant parts of the world; others have acted as Domestic Missionaries in the destitute regions of our own country; while a large portion of them are settled as pastors, throughout the "Great West."

TERMS OF ADMISSION, &c.

Every student applying for admission into the Seminary, shall produce satisfactory testimonials, that he possesses good natural talents, and is of a prudent and discreet deportment; that he is in full communion with some regular church; that he has passed through a regular course of academic study; or, wanting this, he shall submit himself to an examination in regard to the branches of literature taught in such a course.

Students coming from other Theological Seminaries, are required to present certificates of their good standing and regular dismission, before they can be received. And those who have studied privately are expected to bring certificates from some officer of the Presbytery under whose care they are, of their state of progress, in order to their regular admission into the advanced classes.

There is but one Session in each year, commencing on the 4th Monday of August, and continuing to the second week of May. It is very desirable that every student should be present at the opening of the Session. Three years embrace the full course.

Rooms in the Seminary Edifice are furnished by churches and individuals, free of expense to the students, for furniture.

Contingent fund, ten dollars.

The Library consists of about five thousand volumes, many of which are rare and valuable.

Abundant opportunities for religious effort are afforded in Sabbath Schools, Bible Classes, &c. in the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, and their vicinities: and the students being expected to connect themselves with some evangelical church in these cities, during their course of study, and to perform all the duties of regular church members, have the advantage of a complete pastoral training, and a most valuable experience, added to the attainment of piety and solid learning. The location of a Theological Seminary in the midst of populous cities, is shown, by actual results, to be even more beneficial in preparation for the ministry, than a similar location for the Schools of Medicine and Law. The enterprise and commerce which connect these cities with the remotest regions of the West, and the throng communication with every important place in these vast valleys, afford every facility also for acquaintance with western character, and with the condition and wants of this illimitable field, where the harvest truly is plenteous, but the laborers are few.

Resident Graduates and Licentiates may attend, at their option, any of the departments.

The Western Theological Seminary was established by a Resolution of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, in 1825. Under this Resolution, Gen. Andrew Jackson, of Tennessee; Hon. Benjamin Mills, of Kentucky; Hon. John Thompson, of Ohio; the Rev. Obadiah Jennings, and the Rev. Andrew Wylie of Pennsylvania, were appointed a committee to report on a favorable location for the Institution. Several sites were offered to the committee, and by them reported to the Assembly.

After very full discussion and deliberation, the present location was determined upon by the Assembly of 1827.

In the fall of the same year (1827) the Institution was opened with a class of four young men. Since that period to the present, more than three hundred and twenty students have prosecuted their Theological Course, in whole or in part, at this Seminary; of these, twenty-one have consecrated themselves to the work of Foreign Missions, in different and distant parts of the world; others have acted as Domestic Missionaries in the destitute regions of our own country; while a large portion of them are settled as pastors, throughout the "Great West."

TERMS OF ADMISSION, &c.

Every student applying for admission into the Seminary, shall produce satisfactory testimonials, that he possesses good natural talents, and is of a prudent and discreet deportment; that he is in full communion with some regular church; that he has passed through a regular course of academic study; or, wanting this, he shall submit himself to an examination in regard to the branches of literature taught in such a course.

Students coming from other Theological Seminaries, are required to present certificates of their good standing and regular dismission, before they can be received. And those who have studied privately are expected to bring certificates from some officer of the Presbytery under whose care they are, of their state of progress, in order to their regular admission into the advanced classes

There is but one Session in each year, commencing on the 4th Monday of August, and continuing to the second week of May. It is very desirable that every student should be present at the opening of the Session. Three years embrace the full course.

Rooms in the Seminary Edifice are furnished by churches and individuals, free of expense to the students, and during the present Session many of them have been refitted, and others, previously unoccupied, supplied with entire new furniture.

Contingent fund, ten dollars.

The Library consists of above five thousand volumes, many of which are rare and valuable. And an effort is being made to increase the same with a very large addition of modern standard works.

Abundant opportunities for religious effort are afforded in Sabbath Schools, Bible Classes, &c. in the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, and their vicinities: and the students being expected to connect themselves with some evangelical church in these cities, during their course of study, and to perform all the duties of regular church members, have the advantage of a complete pastoral training, and a most valuable experience, added to the attainment of piety and solid learning. The location of a Theological Seminary in the midst of populous cities, is shown, by actual results, to be even more beneficial in preparation for the ministry, than a similar location for the Schools of Medicine and Law. The enterprise and commerce which connect these cities with the remotest regions of the West, and the throng communication with every important place in these vast valleys, afford every facility also for acquaintance with western character, and with the condition and wants of this illimitable field, where the harvest truly is plenteous, but the laborers are few.

GENERAL REMARKS.

Resident Graduates and Licentiates may attend, at their option, any of the departments.

The Western Theological Seminary was established by a Resolution of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, in 1825. Under this Resolution, General Andrew Jackson, of Tennessee; Hon. Benjamin Mills, of Kentucky; Hon. John Thompson, of Ohio; the Rev. Obadiah Jennings, and the Rev. Andrew Wylie, of Pennsylvania, were appointed a committee to report on a favorable location for the Institution. Several sites were offered to the committee, and by them reported to the Assembly. After very full discussion and deliberation, the present location was determined upon by the Assembly of 1827.

In the fall of the same year (1827) the Institution was opened with a class of four young men. Since that period to the present, about three hundred and forty students have prosecuted their Theological Course, in whole, or in part, at this Seminary; of these, twenty-one have consecrated themselves to the work of Foreign Missions, in different and distant parts of the world; others have acted as Domestic Missionaries in the destitute regions of our own country; while a large portion of them are settled as pastors, throughout the "Great West."

TERMS OF ADMISSION, &c.

Every student applying for admission into the Seminary shall produce satisfactory testimonials, that he possesses good natural talents, and is of a prudent and discreet deportment; that he is in full communion with some regular church; that he has passed through a regular course of academic study; or, wanting this, he shall submit himself to an examination in regard to the branches of literature taught in such a course.

Students coming from other Theological Seminaries, are required to present certificates of their good standing and regular dismission before they can be received. And those who have studied privately are expected to bring certificates from some officer of the Presbytery under whose care they are, of their state of progress, in order to their regular admission into the advanced classes.

There is but one Session in the year, commencing on the 4th Monday of August, and continuing to the second week of May. It is very desirable that every student should be present at the opening of the Session. Three years embrace the full course.

Rooms in the Seminary Edifice are furnished by churches and individuals, free of expense to the students.

Fee to the Contingent fund, ten dollars.

The cost of Board and Fuel being very low, the total expense of a student may be reckoned at from $1 50 to $2 50 per week.

The Library consists of between five and six thousand volumes. Many valuable modern works have been lately added. The greater part of the large private library of the Rev. Dr. Halsey, formerly Professor in the Seminary, has also been deposited in the Institution, for the special use of the Faculty.

Abundant opportunities for religious effort are afforded in Sabbath Schools, Bible Classes, &c. in the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, and their vicinities: and the students being expected to connect themselves with some evangelical church in these cities, during their course of study, and to perform all the duties of regular church members, have the advantage of a complete pastoral training, and a most valuable experience, added to the attainment of piety and solid learning. The location of a Theological Seminary in the midst of populous cities, is shown, by actual results, to be even more beneficial in preparation for the ministry, than a similar location for the Schools of Medicine and Law. The enterprise and commerce which connect these cities with the remotest regions of the West, and the thronged communication with every important place in these vast valleys, afford every facility also for acquaintance with western character, and with the condition and wants of this illimitable field, where "the harvest truly is plenteous, but the laborers are few."

GENERAL REMARKS.

The Western Theological Seminary was established by a Resolution of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, in 1825. Under this Resolution, Gen. Andrew Jackson, of Tennessee; Hon. Benjamin Mills, of Kentucky; Hon. John Thompson, of Ohio; the Rev. Obadiah Jennings, and the Rev. Andrew Wylie, of Pennsylvania, were appointed a committee to report on a favorable location for the Institution. Several sites were offered to the committee, and by them reported to the Assembly. After very full discussion and deliberation, the present location was determined upon by the Assembly of 1827.

In the fall of the same year (1827), the Institution was opened with a class of four young men. Since that period to the present, about three hundred and eighty students have prosecuted their Theological Course, in whole, or in part, at this Seminary. Of these, twenty-two have consecrated themselves to the work of Foreign Missions, in different and distant parts of the world; others have acted as Domestic Missionaries in the destitute regions of our own country; while a large portion of them are settled as Pastors, throughout the "Great West."

TERMS OF ADMISSION, &C.

Every student applying for admission into the Seminary shall produce satisfactory testimonials that he possesses good natural talents, and is of a prudent and discreet deportment, that he is in full communion with some regular church; that he has passed through a regular course of academic study; or, wanting this, he shall submit himself to an examination in regard to the branches of literature taught in such a course.

Students coming from other Theological Seminaries, are required to present certificates of their good standing and regular dismission, before they can be received. And those who have studied privately are expected to bring certificates from some member of the Presbytery under whose care they are, of their state of progress, in order to their regular admission into the advanced classes.

Resident Graduates and Licentiates may attend at their option, any of the departments.

There is but one Session in the year, commencing on the 2d Monday of September, and continuing to the second week in May. It is very desirable that every student should be present at the opening of the Session. Three years embrace the full course.

Rooms in the Seminary Edifice are furnished by churches and individuals, free of expense to the student.

Fee to the Contingent Fund, ten dollars.

The cost of Board and Fuel being very low, the total expense of a student may be reckoned at from $1 50 to $2 50 per week.

The Library consists of between five and six thousand volumes. Many valuable modern works have been lately added. The greater part of the large private library of the Rev. Dr. Halsey, formerly Professor in the Seminary, has also been deposited in the Institution, for the special use of the Faculty.

Abundant opportunities for religious effort are afforded in Sabbath Schools, Bible Classes, &c. in the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, and their vicinities; and the students being expected to connect themselves with some evangelical church in these cities, during their course of study, and to perform all the duties of regular church members, have the advantage of a complete pastoral training, and a most valuable experience, added to the attainment of piety and solid learning. The location of a Theological Seminary in the midst of populous cities, is shown, by actual results, to be even more beneficial in preparation for the Ministry, than a similar location for the Schools of Medicine and Law. The enterprise and commerce which connect these cities with the remotest regions of the West, and the thronged communication with every important place in these vast valleys, afford every facility also for acquaintance with western character, and with the condition and wants of the illimitable field, where "the harvest truly is plenteous, but the laborers are few."

JANUARY 31st, 1854.

NOTE.—The destruction of the Building (and of the main Library in part,) by fire on the 23d instant, will not at all interrupt the regular instructions of the Seminary. Immediate measures are taking for rebuilding with more convenient arrangements. The Library will be replenished during the summer, with all the advantage of modern issues and fresh selections. And the prompt response of the Churches to this Providential call, will, it is confidently believed, place this institution on a more eligible footing than before.

In the Fall of the same year (1827), the Institution was opened with a class of four young men. Since that period to the present, about four hundred students have prosecuted their Theological Course, in whole or in part, at this Seminary. Of these, twenty-three have consecrated themselves to the work of Foreign Missions, in different and distant parts of the world; others have acted as Domestic Missionaries in the destitute regions of our own Country; whilst a large portion of them are settled as Pastors, throughout the Great West.

TERMS OF ADMISSION, &C.

Every student applying for admission into the Seminary, shall produce satisfactory testimonials that he possesses good natural talents, and is of a prudent and discreet deportment; that he is in full communion with some regular church; that he has passed through a regular course of Academic study; or, wanting this, he shall submit himself to an examination in regard to the branches of literature taught in such a course.

Students coming from other Theological Seminaries, are required to present certificates of their good standing and regular dismission, before they can be received. Any who may have studied privately, are expected to bring certificates from some member of the Presbytery under whose care they are, of their stage of progress, in order to their regular admission into the advanced classes.

There is but one Session in the year, commencing on the 2d Monday of September, and continuing to the 2d week in May. It is very desirable that every student should be present at the opening of the Session. Three years embrace the full course.

Rooms in the new Seminary edifice are to be furnished by churches and individuals, free of expense to the student; and will be ready for occupancy at the opening of the next session.

Fee to the Contingent Fund, from five to ten dollars.

The cost of Board and Fuel being very low, the necessary expense of a student may be reckoned at from $2 to $3 per week.

The Library is receiving constant additions of well selected works. The greater part of the large private library of the Rev. Dr. Halsey, formerly Professor in the Seminary, has also been deposited in the Institution, for the special use of the Faculty.

Abundant opportunities for religious effort are afforded in Sabbath Schools, Bible Classes, &c. in the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, and their vicinities; and the students being expected to connect themselves with some evangelical church in these cities, during their course of study, and to perform all the duties of regular church members, have the advantage of a complete pastoral training, and a most valuable experience, added to the attainment of piety and solid learning. The location of a Theological Seminary in the midst of populous cities, is shown, by actual results, to be even more beneficial, in preparation for the Ministry, than a similar location for the Schools of Medicine and Law. The enterprise and commerce which connect these cities with the remotest regions of the West, and the thronged communication with every important place in these vast valleys, afford every facility, also, for acquaintance with western character, and with the condition and wants of the illimitable field, where "the harvest truly is plenteous, but the laborers are few."

Arrangements are made by which no Student applying to the Faculty need decline study for lack of the requisite means.

Text books are provided for such as cannot purchase them.

GENERAL REMARKS.

THE WESTERN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY was established by a Resolution of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in 1825. Under this Resolution, Gen. Andrew Jackson, of Tennessee, Hon. Benjamin Mills, of Kentucky, Hon. John Thompson, of Ohio, the Rev. Obadiah Jennings, and the Rev. Andrew Wylie, of Pennsylvania, were appointed a committee, to report on a favorable location for the Institution. Several sites were offered to the committee, and by them reported to the Assembly. After very full discussion and deliberation, the present location was determined upon by the Assembly of 1827.

In the Fall of the same year (1827,) the Institution was opened with a class of four young men. Since that period to the present, over four hundred students have prosecuted their Theological Course, in whole or in part, at this Seminary. Of these, twenty-four have consecrated themselves to the work of Foreign Missions, in different and distant parts of the world; others have acted as Domestic Missionaries in the destitute regions of our own Country; whilst a large portion of them are settled as Pastors, throughout the Great West.

TERMS OF ADMISSION, &C.

Every Student applying for admission into the Seminary, shall produce satisfactory testimonials that he possesses good natural talents, and is of a prudent and discreet deportment; that he is in full communion with some regular church; that he has passed through a regular course of Academic study; or, wanting this, he shall submit himself to an examination in regard to the branches of literature taught in such a course.

Students coming from other Theological Seminaries, are required to present certificates of their good standing and regular dismission, before they can be received. Any who may have studied privately, are expected to bring certificates from some member of the Presbytery under whose care they are, of their stage of progress, in order to their regular admission into the advanced classes.

There is but one Session in the year, commencing on the 2d Monday of September, and continuing to the 2d week in May. It is very desirable that every student should be present at the opening of the Session. Three years embrace the full course. Resident Graduates or Resident Licentiates can attend upon any Lectures or Studies of the course at their option.

Rooms in the new Seminary edifice are furnished by churches and individuals, free of expense to the student

Fee to the Contingent Fund, from eight to ten dollars.

The cost of Board and Fuel being very low, the necessary expenses, of a student may be reckoned at from $2 to $3 per week.

Abundant opportunities for religious effort, are afforded in Sabbath Schools, Bible Classes, &c. in the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, and their vicinities; and the students being expected to connect themselves with some evangelical church in these cities, during their course of study, and to perform all the duties of regular church members, have the advantage of a complete pastoral training, and a most valuable experience, added to the attainment of piety and solid learning. The location of a Theological Seminary in the midst of populous cities, is shown, by actual results, to be even more beneficial, in preparation for the Ministry, than a similar location for the Schools of Medicine and Law.

Allegheny is at the head-waters of Western navigation, and at the central terminus of the great thoroughfares connecting with all parts of the land; the students are brought into close contact with all the wide fields of labor and with the earnest demand that comes up for their ministerial service.

Original Essays and exercises in Debating and in Preaching without Notes, are required throughout the whole Course, under the rules of the Institution.

The Western Theological Seminary was established by a Resolution of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in 1825. Under this Resolution, Gen. Andrew Jackson, of Tennessee, Hon. Benjamin Mills, of Kentucky, Hon. John Thompson, of Ohio, the Rev. Obadiah Jennings, and the Rev. Andrew Wylie, of Pennsylvania, were appointed a Committee, to report on a favorable location for the Institution. Several sites were offered to the Committee, and by them reported to the Assembly. After very full discussion and deliberation, the present location was determined upon by the Assembly of 1827.

In the fall of the same year (1827,) the Institution was opened with a Class of four young men. Since that period to the present, about four hundred and fifty students have prosecuted their Theological Course, in whole or in part, at this Seminary. Of these, twenty-five have consecrated themselves to the work of Foreign Missions, in different and distant parts of the world; others have acted as Domestic Missionaries in the destitute regions of our own Country; whilst a large portion of them are settled as Pastors, throughout the Great West.

TERMS OF ADMISSION, &c.

Every Student applying for admission into the Seminary, shall produce satisfactory testimonials that he possesses good natural talents, and is of a prudent and discreet deportment; that he is in full communion with some regular church; that he has passed through a regular course of Academic study; or, wanting this, he shall submit himself to an examination in regard to the branches of literature taught in such a course.

Students coming from other Theological Seminaries, are required to present certificates of their good standing and regular dismission, before they can be received. Any who may have studied privately, are expected to bring certificates from some member of the Presbytery under whose care they are, of their stage of progress, in order to their regular admission into the advanced classes.

There is but one Session in the year, commencing on the 2d Monday of September, and continuing to the 2d week in May. It is very desirable that every student should be present at the opening of the Session. Three years embrace the full course. Resident Graduates or Resident Licentiates can attend upon any Lectures or Studies of the course at their option.

Rooms in the new Seminary edifice are furnished by churches and individuals, free of expense to the student.

Fee to the contingent Fund, from eight to ten dollars.

The cost of Board and Fuel being very low, the necessary expenses of a student may be reckoned at from $2 to $3 per week.

The Library is receiving constant additions of well selected works. The greater part of the large private Library of the Rev. Dr. Halsey, formerly Professor in the Seminary, has also been deposited in the Institution, for the special use of the Faculty.

Abundant opportunities for religious effort, are afforded in Sabbath Schools, Bible Classes, &c. in the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, and their vicinities; and the students being expected to connect themselves with some evangelical church in these cities, during their course of study, and to perform all the duties of regular church members, have the advantage of a complete pastoral training, and a most valuable experience, added to the attainment of piety and solid learning. The location of a Theological Seminary in the midst of populous cities, is shown, by actual results, to be even more beneficial, in preparation for the Ministry, than a similar location for the Schools of Medicine and Law.

Allegheny City is at the head-waters of Western navigation, and at the central terminus of the great thoroughfares connecting with all parts of the land; students are thus brought into close contact with all the wide fields of labor and with the earnest demand that comes up for their ministerial service.

The Western Theological Seminary

Was opened in the Fall of the year 1827, with a class of four young men. Since that period to the present, about five hundred Students have prosecuted their Theological Course, in whole or in part, at this Seminary. Of these, twenty-five have consecrated themselves to the work of Foreign Missions; others have acted as Domestic Missionaries in the destitute regions of our country; whilst a large portion of them are settled as Pastors throughout the Great West.

Terms of Admission.

Every Student applying for admission into the Seminary, shall produce satisfactory testimonials that he possesses good natural talents, and is of a prudent and discreet deportment; that he is in full communion with some regular Church; that he has passed through a regular course of Academic study; or, wanting this, he shall submit himself to an examination in regard to the branches of literature taught in such a course.

Students coming from other Theological Seminaries, are required to present certificates of their good standing and regular dismission, before they can be received. Any who may have studied privately, are expected to bring certificates from some member of the Presbytery under whose care they are, of their stage of progress, in order to their regular admission into the advanced classes.

There is but one Session in the year, commencing on the second Monday of September, and continuing to the second week in May. It is very desirable that every Student should be present at the opening of the Session. Three years embrace the full course. Resident Graduates or Resident Licentiates can attend upon any Lectures or Studies of the course at their option.

Expenses.

Rooms in the new Seminary edifice have been handsomely furnished by Churches and individuals, and are free of expense to the Student.

There is no charge for Tuition.

Fee to the Contingent Fund, from eight to ten dollars. Board in private families from $1.75 to $2.00 per week.

The necessary expenses of a Student may be reckoned at from $2.00 to $3.00 per week.

Library.

The Library is receiving constant additions of well selected works. The greater part of the large private Library of the Rev. Luther Halsey, D. D. formerly Professor in the Seminary, has also been deposited in the Institution, for the special use of the Faculty, and is called "The Halsey Library." Total in both Libraries, 9,000 volumes.

General Remarks.

Abundant opportunities for religious effort are afforded in Sabbath Schools, Bible Classes, &c. in the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, and their vicinities; and the Students being expected to connect themselves with some Evangelical Church in these cities, during their course of study, and to perform all the duties of regular Church members, have the advantage of a complete pastoral training, and a most valuable experience, added to the attainment of piety and solid learning. The location of a Theological Seminary in the midst of populous cities, is shown, by actual results, to be even more beneficial, in preparation for the Ministry, than a similar location for the Schools of Medicine and Law.

Allegheny City is at the head-waters of Western navigation, and at the central terminus of the great thoroughfares connecting with all parts of the land. Students are thus brought into close contact with all the wide fields of labor and with the earnest demand that comes up from all quarters for their ministerial service.

Students can always receive a Scholarship of $120 to $150 per annum for the entire Course, either from the Board of Education or from the Scholarships of the Seminary, or from private Scholarships at the disposal of the Professors. Liberal friends of the Seminary have furnished the Professors special Scholarships for all needy Students who apply—and have further authorized the assurance to all such as need only in part, that their need shall be supplied.

Exegetical Study of the Scriptures, continued.

Original Essays, and weekly exercises in Debating and Preaching without Notes, are required throughout the whole Course, under the rules of the Institution.

Experienced Teachers will give instruction in the Modern Languages, at the Student's expense.

Three years embrace the full Course as prescribed by the General Assembly in the Original Plan of the Seminaries. Resident Graduates or Licentiates can attend upon any Studies or Lectures of the Course at their option. In addition to this, the Faculty have marked out a course of more advanced Studies and Exercises, through which they will carry such as please to form a Fourth Class—each Professor meeting them once a week, in the Extra Department. By this means a Fourth Year can be spent most advantageously.

Terms of Admission.

Every Student applying for admission into the Seminary shall produce satisfactory testimonials that he possesses good natural talents, and is of a prudent and discreet deportment; that he is in full communion with some regular Church; that he has passed through a regular course of Academic study; or, wanting this, he shall submit himself to an examination in regard to the branches of literature taught in such a course.

Students, coming from other Theological Seminaries, are required to present certificates of their good standing and regular dismission, before they can be received, Any who may have studied privately are expected to bring certificates from some member of the Presbytery under whose care they are, of their stage of progress, in order to their regular admission into the advanced classes.

Seminary Year.

There is but one Session in the year, commencing on the second Monday of September, and continuing to the second week of May. It is very desirable that every Student should be present at the opening of the Session.

Expenses.

Rooms in the Seminary edifice have been handsomely furnished by Churches and individuals, and are free of expense to the Student. By the munificence of a Christian lady, a New Building is to be erected immediately, with single rooms for Students, so that all may have convenient and well furnished rooms, free of rent, and with gaslight at their option.

There is no charge for Tuition.

Fee to the Contingent Fund, from eight to ten dollars. Board in private families from $1.75 to $2.00 per week.

The necessary expenses of a Student may be reckoned at from $2.00 to $3.00 per week—not exceeding $100 for the year.

There are Gymnasia in Pittsburgh and Allegheny, of which Students may become members.

Students can always receive a Scholarship of $120 to $150 per annum for the entire Course, either from the Board of Education or from the Scholarships of the Seminary, or from private Scholarships at the disposal of the Professors. Liberal friends of the Seminary have furnished the Professors with special Scholarships for all needy Students who apply; and have further authorized the assurance to all such as need only in part, that their need shall be supplied.

Students can also aid themselves in part, by teaching an hour or two daily in families or in schools, or by colportage, or by embracing similar remunerative opportunities that offer in these cities, under the direction of the Faculty.

Scholarships.---Bequests.

Annual and Permanent Scholarships are greatly needed. The sum of $120 provides for one Student for a year. The sum of $2,000 endows a Permanent Scholarship, which can be applied to any one whom the donor shall at any time name, or can be left at the discretion of the Faculty.

Bequests in favor of the Seminary may be made in the following or similar form; to wit:

To "The Trustees of the Western Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America," a Corporation located at Allegheny City, Pennsylvania, and to its successors and assigns forever, I give and bequeath the sum of Dollars (or, I give and devise a certain lot, &c.,) for the uses and purposes of said corporation according to the provisions of its charter, (or to be safely invested, by said corporation, in good real estate security,) and the interest accruing therefrom to be applied, from time to time, in aid of indigent young men preparing for the gospel ministry in said Seminary, or for such other special purpose as the testator may wish to designate.

It is, of course, all important that testamentary papers be executed in accordance with the law of the testator's domicil. Each State has its own statutory regulations. The law of Virginia, for example, requires that a last will and testament be signed by the testator, or by some one in his presence, at his direction, and, if not wholly written by himself, be attested by two or more credible witnesses, in his presence.

Libraries.

The Library is receiving constant additions of well selected works. The greater part of the large private Library of the Rev. Luther Halsey, D. D. formerly Professor in the Seminary, has also been deposited in the Institution, for the special use of the Faculty, and is called "The Halsey Library." Total in both Libraries, 9,000 volumes.

General Remarks.

ABUNDANT opportunities for Christian effort and usefulness are afforded in Sabbath Schools, Bible Classes, and Colportage, in the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, which, with the immediate suburbs, contain a population of about 150,000—Allegheny itself having nearly 40,000. There are 35 or 40 Churches of the Presbyterian family in these cities and suburbs, besides many of the other Evangelical denominations. The Students do not form a separate congregation on the Sabbath, but connect themselves with one or other of the Congregations here, during their course of study, and perform all the duties of regular Church Members. They thus have the great advantage of a complete pastoral training and a most valuable experience, added to the attainment of piety and solid learning. The location of a Theological Seminary in the bounds of populous cities, is shown, by actual results, to be even more beneficial, in preparation for the Ministry, than a similar location for the Schools of Medicine and Law.

Allegheny City is at the head-waters of Western navigation, and at the central terminus of the great thoroughfares connecting with all parts of the land. Students are thus brought into close contact with all the wide fields of labor, and with the earnest demand that comes up from all quarters for their ministerial services.

Summary of Studies.

First Year.

Hebrew Language.
Greek Exegesis.
Biblical History and Antiquities.
Mental and Moral Science.
Introduction to the Study of the Scriptures.
Biblical Criticism and Interpretation.
Lectures on Experimental and Practical Religion.
Theory of Preaching.
Introduction to Polemics.

Second Year.

Exegetical Study of the Hebrew and Greek Scriptures, continued.

Polemic and Historical Theology.
Sacred Rhetoric.

Third Year.

Didactic Theology, continued.
History of the Presbyterian Church.
Church Government and Discipline.
Exegetical Study of the Scriptures, continued.
Pastoral Theology, completed.

Original Essays, and weekly exercises in Debating and Preaching without Notes, are required throughout the whole course, under the rules of the Institution.

Experienced Teachers will give instruction in the Modern Languages, at the Student's expense.

Three years embrace the full Course as prescribed by the General Assembly in the Original Plan of the Seminaries. Resident Graduates or Licentiates can attend upon any Studies or Lectures of the Course, at their option. In addition to this, the Faculty have marked out a course of more advanced Studies and Exercises, through which they will carry such as please to form a Fourth class—each Professor meeting them once a week, in the Extra Department. By this means a Fourth Year can be spent most advantageously.

Terms of Admission.

Every Student applying for admission into the Seminary shall produce satisfactory testimonials that he possesses good natural talents, and is of a prudent and discreet deportment; that he is in full communion with some Evangelical Church; that he has passed through a regular course of Academic study; or, wanting this, he shall submit himself to an examination in regard to the branches of literature taught in such a course.

Students coming from other Theological Seminaries, are required to present certificates of their good standing and regular dismission, before they can be received. Any who may have studied privately are expected to bring certificates from some member of the Presbytery under whose care they are, of their stage of progress, in order to their regular admission into the advanced classes.

Seminary Year.

There is but one Session in the year, commencing on the Second Monday of September, and continuing to the Wednesday before the Fourth Tuesday of April. It is very desirable that every Student be present at the opening of the Session.

Beatty Hall.

By the munificence of Mrs. Hetty C. Beatty, of Steubenville, Ohio, a new building has been completed, called "Beatty Hall," after the worthy donor. It contains eighty-one single rooms for study and lodging. All of these are carpeted. Each has an open grate, and the best arrangement for ventilation; is furnished with gas light, and with neat and suitable furniture, uniform throughout. Rooms in either of the Seminary Edifices are given to the Students free of rent.

Expenses.

There is no charge for Tuition.

Fee to the Contingent Fund, from eight to ten dollars. Board in private families, from $1.75 to $2.00 per week.

The necessary expenses of a Student may be reckoned at from $2.00 to $3.00 per week—not exceeding $100 for the year.

There are Gymnasia in Pittsburgh and Allegheny, of which Students may become members.

Students can always receive a Scholarship of $120 to $150 per annum for the entire Course, either from the Board of Education or from the Scholarships of the Seminary, or from private Scholarships at the disposal of the Professors. Liberal friends of the Seminary have furnished the Professors with special Scholarships for all needy Students who apply; and have further authorized the assurance to all such as need only in part, that their need shall be supplied.

Students can also aid themselves in part, by teaching an hour or two daily in families or in schools, or by colportage, or by embracing similar remunerative opportunities that offer in these cities, under the direction of the Faculty.

Scholarships.—Bequests.

Annual and Permanent Scholarships are greatly needed. The sum of $120 provides for one Student for a year. The sum of $2,000 endows a Permanent Scholarship, which can be applied to any one whom the donor shall at any time name, or it can be left at the discretion of the Faculty.

Bequests in favor of the Seminary may be made in the following or similar form, to wit:

To "The Trustees of the Western Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America," a corporation located in Allegheny Pennsylvania, and to its successors and assigns for ever, I give and bequeath the sum of dollars (or, I give and devise a certain lot, &c.) for the uses and purposes of said corporation, according to the provisions of its charter, (or to be safely invested, by said corporation, in good real estate security,) and the interest accruing therefrom to be applied, from time to time, in aid of indigent young men preparing for the Gospel ministry in said Seminary—or for such other special purpose as the testator may wish to designate.

It is, of course, all important that testamentary papers be executed in accordance with the law of the testator's domicil. Each State has its own statutory regulations. The law of Virginia, for example, requires that a last will and testament be signed by the testator, or by some one in his presence, at his direction, and, if not wholly written by himself, be attested by two or more credible witnesses, in his presence.

Libraries.

The Library is receiving constant additions of well selected works. The greater part of the large private Library of the Rev. LUTHER HALSEY, D. D. formerly Professor in the Seminary, has also been deposited in the Institution, for the special use of the Faculty, and is called "THE HALSEY LIBRARY." Total in both Libraries, 10,000 volumes.

General Remarks.

Abundant opportunities for Christian effort and usefulness are afforded in Sabbath Schools, Bible Classes, and Colportage, in the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, which, with the immediate suburbs, contain a population of about 150,000—Allegheny itself having nearly 40,000. There are 35 or 40 churches of the Presbyterian family in these cities and suburbs, besides many of the other Evangelical denominations. The Students do not form a separate congregation on the Sabbath, but connect themselves with one or other of the Congregations here, during their course of study, and perform all the duties of regular Church Members. They thus have the great advantage of a complete pastoral training and a most valuable experience, added to the attainment of piety and solid learning. The location of a Theological Seminary in the bounds of populous cities, is shown by actual results, to be even more beneficial, in preparation for the Ministry, than a similar location for the Schools of Medicine and Law.

Allegheny City is at the head-waters of Western navigation, and at the central terminus of the great thoroughfares connecting with all parts of the land. Students are thus brought into close contact with all the wide fields of labor, and with the earnest demand that comes up from all quarters for their ministerial services.

Calendar for 1860.

Monday, April 16.—Examination begins.

Tuesday Evening, April 17.—Address before the "Society of Inquiry," by Rev. Moses D. Hoge, D. D. of Richmond, Virginia.

Wednesday, April 18.—Examination closes.

" " " Address by Chairman of Examining Committee.

" Evening, April 18.—Addresses by the Graduating Class, and Farewell Address to them by a member of the Faculty.

Monday, September 10.—Term of 1860–1861 opens. Introductory Address by one of the Professors.

Summary of Studies.

First Year.

Hebrew Language.
Greek Exegesis.
Biblical History and Antiquities.
Mental and Moral Science.
Introduction to the Study of the Scriptures.
Biblical Criticism and Interpretation.
Lectures on Experimental and Practical Religion.
Introduction to Polemics.

Second Year.

Exegetical Study of the Hebrew and Greek Scriptures, continued.
Ecclesiastical History.
Composition and Delivery of Sermons.
Didactic Theology.
Polemic and Historical Theology.
Sacred Rhetoric.

Third Year.

Sacred Rhetoric.
Exercises in Homiletics, continued.
History of the Presbyterian Church.
Church Government and Discipline.
Exegetical Study of the Scriptures, continued.
Pastoral Theology, completed.

Original Essays, and weekly exercises in Debating, and in Preaching without Notes, are required throughout the whole course, under the rules of the Institution.

Experienced Teachers will give instruction in the Modern Languages, at the Student's expense.

Three years embrace the full Course as prescribed by the General Assembly in the Original Plan of the Seminaries. Resident Graduates or Licentiates can attend upon any Studies or Lectures of the Course, at their option. In addition to this, the Faculty have marked out a course of more advanced Studies and Exercises, through which they will carry such as please to form a Fourth class—each Professor meeting them once a week, in the Extra Department. By this means a Fourth Year can be spent most advantageously.

Terms of Admission.

Every Student applying for admission into the Seminary shall produce satisfactory testimonials that he possesses good natural talents, and is of a prudent and discreet deportment; that he is in full communion with some Evangelical Church; that he has passed through a regular course of Academic study; or, wanting this, he shall submit himself to an examination in regard to the branches of literature taught in such a course.

Students coming from other Theological Seminaries, are required to present certificates of their good standing and regular dismission, before they can be received. Any who may have studied privately are expected to bring certificates from some member of the Presbytery under whose care they are, of their stage of progress, in order to their regular admission into the advanced classes.

Seminary Year.

There is but one Session in the year, commencing on the Second Monday of September, and continuing to the Wednesday before the Fourth Tuesday of April. It is very desirable that every Student be present at the opening of the Session.

Beatty Hall.

By the munificence of Mrs. Hetty C. Beatty, of Steubenville, Ohio, a new building was last year completed, called "Beatty Hall," after the worthy donor. It contains eighty-one single rooms for study and lodging. All of these are carpeted. Each has an open grate, and the best arrangement for ventilation; is furnished with gas light, and with neat and suitable furniture, uniform throughout. Besides this building, there are accommodations for thirty-two Students in the centre building. Rooms in either of the Seminary Edifices are given to the Student free of rent.

Expenses.

There is no charge for Tuition.

Fee to the Contingent Fund, from eight to ten dollars. Board in private families, from $1.75 to $2.00 per week.

The necessary expenses of a Student may be reckoned at from $2.00 to $3.00 per week—not exceeding $100 for the year.

There are Gymnasia in Pittsburgh and Allegheny, of which Students may become members.

Students can always receive a Scholarship of $120 to $150 per annum for the entire Course, either from the Board of Education or from the Scholarships of the Seminary, or from private Scholarships at the disposal of the Professors. Liberal friends of the Seminary have furnished the Professors with special Scholarships for all needy Students who apply; and have further authorized the assurance to all such as need only in part, that their need shall be supplied.

Students can sometimes aid themselves in part, by teaching an hour or two daily in families or in schools, or by colportage, or by embracing similar remunerative opportunities that offer in these cities, under the direction of the Faculty.

Scholarships.—Bequests.

Annual and Permanent Scholarships are greatly needed. The sum of $120 provides for one Student for a year. The sum of $2,000 endows a Permanent Scholarship, which can be applied to any one whom the donor shall at any time name, or it can be left at the discretion of the Faculty.

Bequests in favor of the Seminary may be made in the following or similar form, to wit:

To "The Trustees of the Western Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America," a corporation located in Allegheny, Pennsylvania, and to its successors and assigns for ever, I give and bequeath the sum of—dollars (or, I give and devise a certain lot, &c.) for the uses and purposes of said corporation, according to the provisions of its charter, (or to be safely invested, by said corporation, in good real estate security,) and the interest accruing therefrom, to be applied, from time to time, in aid of indigent young men preparing for the Gospel ministry in said Seminary—or for such other special purpose as the testator may wish to designate.

It is, of course, all-important that testamentary papers be executed in accordance with the law of the testator's domicil. Each State has its own statutory regulations. The law of Virginia, for example, requires that a last will and testament be signed by the testator, or by some one in his presence, at his direction, and, if not wholly written by himself, be attested by two or more credible witnesses, in his presence.

Libraries.

The Library is receiving constant additions of well selected works. The greater part of the large private Library of the Rev. LUTHER HALSEY, D. D., formerly Professor in the Seminary, has also been deposited in the Institution, for the special use of the Faculty, and is called "THE HALSEY LIBRARY." Total in both Libraries, 10,000 volumes.

General Remarks.

Abundant opportunities for Christian effort and usefulness are afforded in Sabbath Schools, Bible Classes, and Colportage, in the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, which, with the immediate suburbs, contain a population of about 150,000—Allegheny itself having nearly 30,000. There are 35 or 40 churches of the Presbyterian family in these cities and suburbs, besides many of the other Evangelical denominations. The Students do not form a separate congregation on the Sabbath, but connect themselves with one or other of the Congregations here, during their course of study, and perform all the duties of regular Church Members. They thus have the great advantage of a complete pastoral training and a most valuable experience, added to the attainment of piety and solid learning. The location of a Theological Seminary in the bounds of populous cities, is shown by actual results, to be even more beneficial, in preparation for the Ministry, than a similar location for the Schools of Medicine and Law.

Allegheny City is at the head-waters of Western navigation, and at the central terminus of the great thoroughfares connecting with all parts of the land. Students are thus brought into close contact with all the wide fields of labor, and with the earnest demand that comes up from all quarters for their ministerial services.

Calendar for 1861.

Biblical History and Antiquities.
Mental and Moral Science.
Introduction to the Study of the Scriptures.
Biblical Criticism and Interpretation.
Lectures on Experimental and Practical Religion.
Introduction to Polemics.

Second Year.

Exegetical Study of the Hebrew and Greek Scriptures, continued.
Ecclesiastical History.
Composition and Delivery of Sermons.
Didactic Theology.
Polemic and Historical Theology.
Sacred Rhetoric.

Third Year.

Sacred Rhetoric.
Exercises in Homiletics, continued.
History of the Presbyterian Church.
Church Government and Discipline.
Exegetical Study of the Scriptures, continued.
Pastoral Theology, completed.

Original Essays, and weekly exercises in Debating, and in Preaching without Notes, are required throughout the whole course, under the rules of the Institution.

Experienced Teachers will give instruction in the Modern Languages, at the Student's expense.

Three years embrace the full Course as prescribed by the General Assembly in the Original Plan of the Seminaries. Resident Graduates or Licentiates can attend upon any Studies or Lectures of the Course, at their option. In addition to this, the Faculty have marked out a course of more advanced Studies and Exercises, through which they will carry such as please to form a Fourth class—each Professor meeting them once a week, in the Extra Department. By this means a Fourth Year can be spent most advantageously.

Terms of Admission.

Every Student applying for admission into the Seminary shall produce satisfactory testimonials that he possesses good natural talents, and is of a prudent and discreet deportment; that he is in full communion with some Evangelical Church; that he has passed through a regular course of Academic study; or, wanting this, he shall submit himself to an examination in regard to the branches of literature taught in such a course.

Students coming from other Theological Seminaries, are required to present certificates of their good standing and regular dismission, before they can be received. Any who may have studied privately are expected to bring certificates from some member of the Presbytery under whose care they are, of their stage of progress, in order to their regular admission into the advanced classes.

Seminary Year.

There is but one Session in the year, commencing on the Second Monday of September, and continuing to the Wednesday before the Fourth Tuesday of April. It is very desirable that every Student be present at the opening of the Session.

Beatty Hall.

By the munificence of Mrs. Hetty E. Beatty, of Steubenville, Ohio, a new building has been completed, called "Beatty Hall," after the worthy donor. It contains eighty-one single rooms for study and lodging. All of these are carpeted. Each has an open grate, and the best arrangement for ventilation; is furnished with gas light, and with neat and suitable furniture, uniform throughout. Besides this, there are accommodations for thirty-two Students in the main building. Rooms in either of the Seminary Edifices are given to the Student free of rent.

Expenses.

There is no charge for Tuition.

Fee to the Contingent Fund, from eight to ten dollars. Board in private families, from $1.75 to $2.00 per week.

The necessary expenses of a Student may be reckoned at from $2.00 to $3.00 per week—not exceeding $100 for the year.

There are Gymnasia in Pittsburgh and Allegheny, of which Students may become members.

Students can always receive a Scholarship of $120 to $150 per annum for the entire Course, either from the Board of Education or from the Scholarships of the Seminary, or from private Scholarships at the disposal of the Professors. Liberal friends of the Seminary have furnished the Professors with special Scholarships for all needy Students who apply; and have further authorized the assurance to all such as need only in part, that their need shall be supplied.

Students can sometimes aid themselves in part, by teaching an hour or two daily in families or in schools, or by colportage, or by embracing similar remunerative opportunities that offer in these cities, under the direction of the Faculty.

Scholarships.—Bequests.

Annual and Permanent Scholarships are greatly needed. The sum of $120 provides for one Student for a year. The sum of $2,000 endows a Permanent Scholarship, which can be applied to any one whom the donor shall at any time name, or it can be left to the discretion of the Faculty.

Bequests in favor of the Seminary may be made in the following or similar form, to wit:

To "The Trustees of the Western Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America," a corporation located in Allegheny, Pennsylvania, and to its successors and assigns for ever, I give and bequeath the sum of — dollars (or, I give and devise a certain lot, &c.) for the uses and purposes of said corporation, according to the provisions of its charter, (or to be safely invested, by said corporation, in good real estate security,) and the interest accruing therefrom, to be applied, from time to time, in aid of indigent young men preparing for the Gospel ministry in said Seminary—or for such other special purpose as the testator may designate.

It is, of course, all-important that testamentary papers be executed in accordance with the law of the testator's domicil. Each State has its own statutory regulations. The law of Virginia, for example, requires that a last will and testament be signed by the testator, or by some one in his presence, at his direction, and, if not wholly written by himself, be attested by two or more credible witnesses, in his presence.

Libraries.

The Library is receiving constant additions of well selected works. The greater part of the large private Library of the Rev. Luther Halsey, D. D., formerly Professor in the Seminary, has also been deposited in the Institution, for the special use of the Faculty, and is called "The Halsey Library." Total in both Libraries, 10,000 volumes.

General Remarks.

Abundant opportunities for Christian effort and usefulness are afforded in Sabbath Schools, Bible Classes, and Colportage, in the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, which, with the immediate suburbs, contain a population of about 150,000—Allegheny itself having nearly 30,000. There are 35 or 40 churches of the Presbyterian family in these cities and suburbs, besides many of the other Evangelical denominations. The Students do not form a separate congregation on the Sabbath, but connect themselves with one or other of the Congregations here, during their course of Study, and perform all the duties of regular Church Members. They thus have the great advantage of a complete Pastoral training and a most valuable experience, added to the attainment of piety and solid learning. The location of a Theological Seminary in the bounds of populous cities, is shown by actual results, to be even more beneficial, in preparation for the Ministry, than a similar location for the Schools of Medicine and Law.

Allegheny City is at the head-waters of Western navigation, and at the central terminus of the great thoroughfares connecting with all parts of the land. Students are thus brought into close contact with all the wide fields of labor, and with the earnest demand that comes up from all quarters for their ministerial services.

Calendar for 1862.

Church Government and Discipline.
Exegetical Study of the Scriptures, continued.
Pastoral Theology, completed.

Original Essays, and weekly exercises in Debating, and in Preaching without Notes, are required throughout the whole course, under the rules of the Institution.

Experienced Teachers will give instruction in the Modern Languages, at the Student's expense.

Three years embraces the full course as prescribed by the General Assembly in the Original Plan of the Seminaries. Resident Graduates or Licentiates can attend upon any Studies or Lectures of the Course, at their option. In addition to this, the Faculty have marked out a course of more advanced Studies and Exercises, through which they will carry such as please to form a Fourth class—each Professor meeting them once a week, in the Extra Department. By this means a Fourth Year can be spent most advantageously.

Terms of Admission.

Every Student applying for admission into the Seminary shall produce satisfactory testimonials that he possesses good natural talents, and is of a prudent and discreet deportment; that he is in full communion with some Evangelical Church; that he has passed through a regular course of Academic study; or, wanting this, he shall submit himself to an examination in regard to the branches of literature taught in such a course.

Students coming from other Theological Seminaries, are required to present certificates of their good standing and regular dismission, before they can be received. Any who may have studied privately are expected to bring certificates from some member of the Presbytery under whose care they are, of their stage of progress, in order to their regular admission into the advanced classes.

Seminary Year.

There is but one Session in the year, commencing on the Second Monday of September, and continuing to the Wednesday before the Fourth Tuesday of April. It is very desirable that every Student be present at the opening of the Session.

Beatty Hall.

By the munificence of Mrs. Hetty E. Beatty, of Steubenville, Ohio, a new building has been completed, called "Beatty Hall," after the worthy donor.—It contains eighty-one single rooms for study and lodging. All of these are carpeted. Each has an open grate, and the best arrangement for ventilation; is furnished with gas light, and with neat and suitable furniture, uniform throughout. Besides this, there are accommodations for thirty-two Students in the main building. Rooms in either of the Seminary Edifices are given to the Student free of rent.

Expenses.

There is no charge for Tuition.

Fee to the Contingent Fund, from eight to ten dollars. Board in private families, from $1.75 to $2.00 per week.

The necessary expenses of a Student may be reckoned at from $2.00 to $3.00 per week—not exceeding $100 for the year.

There are Gymnasia in Pittsburgh and Allegheny, of which Students may become members.

Students can always receive a Scholarship of $120 to $150 per annum for the entire Course, either from the Board of Education or from the Scholarships of the Seminary, or from private Scholarahips at the disposal of the Professors.—Liberal friends of the Seminary have furnished the Professors with special Scholarships for all needy Students who apply; and have further authorized the assurance to all such as need only in part, that their need shall be supplied.

Students can sometimes aid themselves in part, by teaching an hour or two daily, in families or in schools, or by colportage, or by embracing similar remunerative opportunities that offer in these cities, under the direction of the Faculty.

Scholarships.---Bequests.

Annual and Permanent Scholarships are greatly needed. The sum of $120 provides for one Student for a year. The sum of $2,000 endows a Permanent Scholarship, which can be applied to any one whom the donor shall at any time name, or it can be left to the discretion of the Faculty.

Bequests in favor of the Seminary may be made in the following or similar form, to wit:

To "The Trustees of the Western Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America," a corporation located in Allegheny, Pennsylvania, and to its successors and assigns for ever, I give and bequeath the sum of— dollars (or, I give and devise a certain lot, &c.) for the uses and purposes of said corporation, according to the provisions of its charter, (or to be safely invested, by said corporation, in good real estate security,) and the interest accruing therefrom, to be applied, from time to time, in aid of indigent young men preparing for the Gospel ministry in said Seminary—or for such other special purpose as the testator may designate.

It is, of course, all-important that testamentary papers be executed in accordance with the law of the testator's domicil. Each State has its own statutory regulations. The law of Virginia. for example, requires that a last will and testament be signed by the testator, or by some one in his presence, at his direction, and, if not wholly written by himself, be attested by two or more credible witnesses, in his presence.

Libraries.

The Library is receiving constant additions of well selected works. The greater part of the large private Library of the Rev. Luther Halsey, D. D. formerly Professor in the Seminary, has also been deposited in the Institution for the special use of the Faculty, and is called "The Halsey Library." Total in both Libraries, 10,000 volumes.

General Remarks.

Abundant opportunities for Christian effort and usefulness are afforded in Sabbath Schools, Bible Classes, and Colportage, in the Cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, which, with the immediate suburbs, contain a population of about 150,000—Allegheny itself having nearly 30,000. There are 35 or 40 churches of the Presbyterian Family in these cities and suburbs, besides many of the other Evangelical denominations. The Students do not form a separate congregation on the Sabbath, but connect themselves with one or other of the Congregations here, during their course of Study, and perform all the duties of regular Church Members. They thus have the great advantage of a complete pastoral training, and a most valuable experience, added to the attainment of piety and solid learning. The location of a Theological Seminary in the bounds of Populous cities, is shown by actual results, to be even more beneficial, in preparation for the ministry, than a similar location for the Schools of Medicine and Law.

Allegheny City is at the head-waters of Western Navigation, and at th central terminus of the great thoroughfares connecting with all parts of the land. Students are thus brought into close contact with all the wide fields of labor, and with the earnest demand that comes up from all quarters for their ministerial services.

Church Government and Discipline.
Exegetical Study of the Scriptures, continued.
Pastoral Theology, completed.

Original Essays, and weekly exercises in Debating, and in Preaching without Notes, are required throughout the whole course, under the rules of the Institution.

Experienced teachers will give instruction in the Modern Languages, at the Student's expense.

Three years will embrace the full course as prescribed by the General Assembly in the Original Plan of the Seminaries. Resident Graduates or Licentiates can attend upon any Studies or Lectures of the course, at their option. In addition to this, the Faculty have marked out a course of more advanced Studies and Exercises, through which they will carry such as please to form a Fourth class—each Professor meeting them once a week, in the Extra Department. By this means a Fourth Year can be spent most advantageously.

Terms of Admission.

Every Student applying for admission into the Seminary shall produce satisfactory testimonials that he possesses good natural talents, and is of a prudent and discreet deportment; that he is in full communion with some Evangelical Church; that he has passed through a regular course of Academic study; or, wanting this, he shall submit himself to an examination in regard to the branches of literature taught in such a course.

Students coming from other Theological Seminaries, are required to present certificates of their good standing and regular dismission, before they can be received. Any who may have studied privately are expected to bring certificates from some member of the Presbytery under whose care they are, of their stage of progress, in order to their regular admission into the advanced classes.

Seminary Year.

There is but one session in the year, commencing on the Second Monday of September, and continuing to the Wednesday before the Fourth Tuesday of April. It is very desirable that every Student be present at the opening of the Session.

Beatty Hall.

By the munificence of Mrs. Hetty E. Beatty, of Steubenville, Ohio, a new building has been completed, called "Beatty Hall," after the worthy donor. It contains eighty-one single rooms for study and lodging. All of these are carpeted. Each has an open grate, and the best arrangement for ventilation; is furnished with gas light, and with neat and suitable furniture, uniform throughout. Besides this, there are accommodations for thirty-two Students in the main building. Rooms in either of the Seminary Edifices are given to the Student free of rent.

Expenses.

There is no charge for Tuition. Fuel, $5.00.

Fee to the Contingent Fund, from eight to ten dollars. Board in private families is had at $2.00, and upward per week.

There are Gymnasia in Pittsburgh and Allegheny, of which Students may become members.

Students can always receive a Scholarship of $120 to $150 per annum for the entire Course, either from the Board of Education or from the Scholarships of the Seminary, or from private Scholarships at the disposal of the Professors. Liberal friends of the Seminary have furnished the Professors with special Scholarships for all needy Students who apply; and have further authorized the assurance to all such as need only in part, that their need shall be supplied.

Students can sometimes aid themselves in part, by teaching an hour or two daily, in families or in schools, or by colportage, or by embracing similar remunerative opportunities that offer in these cities, under the direction of the Faculty.

Scholarships.—Bequests.

Annual and Permanent Scholarships are greatly needed. The sum of $120 provides for one Student for a year. The sum of $2,000 endows a Permanent Scholarship, which can be applied to any one whom the donor shall at any time name, or it can be left to the discretion of the Faculty.

Bequests in favor of the Seminary may be made in the following or similar form, to wit:

To "The Trustees of the Western Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America," a corporation located in Allegheny, Pennsylvania, and to its successors and assigns for ever, I give and bequeath the sum of — dollars (or, I give and devise a certain lot, &c.) for the uses and purposes of said corporation, according to the provisions of its charter, (or to be safely invested, by said corporation, in good real estate security,) and the interest accruing therefrom, to be applied, from time to time, in aid of indigent young men preparing for the Gospel ministry in said Seminary—or for such other special purpose as the testator may designate.

It is of course, all-important that testamentary papers be executed in accordance with the law of the testator's domicil. Each State has its own statutory regulations. The law of Virginia, for example, requires that a last will and testament be signed by the testator, or by some one in his presence, at his direction, and, if not wholly written by himself, be attested by two or more credible witnesses, in his presence.

Libraries.

The Library is receiving constant additions of well selected works. The greater part of the large private Library of the Rev. Luther Halsey, D. D. formerly Professor in the Seminary, has also been deposited in the Institution for the special use of the Faculty, and is called "The Halsey Library." Total in both Libraries, 10,000 volumes.

General Remarks.

Abundant opportunities for Christian effort and usefulness are afforded in Sabbath Schools, Bible Classes, and Colportage, in the Cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, which, with the immediate suburbs, contain a population of about 150,000—Allegheny itself having nearly 30,000. There are 35 or 40 churches of the Presbyterian family in these cities and suburbs, besides many of the other Evangelical denominations. The Students do not form a separate congregation on the Sabbath, but connect themselves with one or other of the Congregations here, during their course of Study, and perform all the duties of regular Church Members. They thus have the great advantage of a complete pastoral training, and a most valuable experience, added to the attainment of piety and solid learning. The location of a Theological Seminary in the bounds of populous cities, is shown by actual results, to be even more beneficial, in preparation for the ministry, than a similar location for the Schools of Medicine and Law.

Allegheny City is at the head-waters of Western Navigation, and at the central terminus of the great thoroughfares connecting with all parts of the land. Students are thus brought into close contact with all the wide fields of labor, and with the earnest demand that comes up from all quarters for their ministerial services.

Calendar for 1864.

MONDAY, April 18—Examination begins.

TUESDAY EVENING, April 19—Address before the "Society of Inquiry," by Rev. W. P. BREED, Philadelphia.

WEDNESDAY, April 20—Examination closes.

" " Address by Chairman of Examining Committee.

" EVENING, April 20—Addresses by Graduating Class, and Farewell Address to them by a member of the Faculty.

MONDAY, September 12—Term of 1864–1865 opens. Introductory Address by one of the Professors.

Ecclesiastical History, continued.
History of the Presbyterian Church.
Church Government and Discipline.
Exegetical Study of the Scriptures, continued.
Pastoral Theology, completed.

Original Essays, and weekly exercises in Debating, and in Preaching without Notes, are required throughout the whole course, under the rules of the Institution.

Experienced teachers will give instruction in the Modern Languages, at the Student's expense.

Three years will embrace the full course as prescribed by the General Assembly in the Original Plan of the Seminaries. Resident Graduates or Licentiates can attend upon any Studies or Lectures of the course, at their option. In addition to this, the Faculty have marked out a course of more advanced Studies and Exercises, through which they will carry such as please to spend a Fourth Year—which can be done advantageously.

Terms of Admission.

Every Student applying for admission into the Seminary shall produce satisfactory testimonials that he possesses good natural talents, and is of a prudent and discreet deportment; that he is in full communion with some Evangelical Church, that he has passed through a regular course of Academic study; or, wanting this, he shall submit himself to an examination in regard to the branches of literature taught in such a course.

Students coming from other Theological Seminaries, are required to present certificates of their good standing and regular dismission, before they can be received. Any who may have studied privately are expected to bring certificates from some member of the Presbytery under whose care they are, of their stage of progress, in order to their regular admission into the advanced classes.

Seminary Year.

There is but one session in the year, commencing on the Second Monday of September, and continuing to the Wednesday before the Fourth Wednesday of April. It is very desirable that every student be present at the opening of the Session.

Beatty Hall.

By the munificence of Mrs. Hetty E. Beatty, of Steubenville, Ohio, a new building has been completed, called "Beatty Hall," after the worthy donor. In contains eighty-one single rooms for study and lodging. All of these are carpeted. Each has an open grate, and the best arrangement for ventilation; is furnished with gas light, and with neat and suitable furniture, uniform throughout. Besides this, there are accommodations for thirty-two Students in the main building. Rooms in either of the Seminary Edifices are given to the Student free of rent.

Expenses.

There is no charge for Tuition. Fuel, $6.

Fee to the Contingent Fund, from eight to ten dollars. Board in private families is had, in ordinary times at $2, and now $2.50 to $4 per week.

There are Gymnasia in Pittsburgh and Allegheny, of which Students may become members.

Students can always receive a Scholarship of $120 to $150 per annum for the entire Course, either from the Board of Education or from the Scholarships of the Seminary, or from private Scholarships at the disposal of the Professors. Liberal friends of the Seminary have furnished the Professors with special Scholarships for all needy Students who apply; and have further authorized the assurance to all such as need only in part, that their need shall be supplied.

Students can sometimes aid themselves in part, by teaching an hour or two daily, in families or in schools, or by colportage, or by embracing similar remunerative opportunities that offer in these cities, under the direction of the Faculty.

Scholarships.---Bequests.

Annual and Permanent Scholarships are greatly needed. The sum of $120 to $1.50 provides for one Student for one year. The sum of $2,000 to $2,500 endows a permanent Scholarship, which can be applied to any one whom the donor shall at any time name, or it can be left to the discretion of the Faculty.

Bequests in favor of the Seminary may be made in the following or similar form, to wit:

To "The Trustees of the Western Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America," a corporation located in Allegheny, Pennsylvania, and to its successors and assigns for ever, I give and bequeath the sum of — dollars (or, I give and devise a certain lot, &c.) for the uses and purposes of said corporation, according to the provisions of its charter, (or to be safely invested, by said corporation, in good real estate security,) and the interest accruing therefrom, to be applied, from time to time, in aid of indigent young men preparing for the Gospel ministry in said Seminary—or for such other special purposes as the testator may designate.

It is of course all-important that testamentary papers be executed in accordance with the law of the testator's domicil. Each State has its own statutory regulations. The law of Virginia, for example, requires that a last will and testament be signed by the testator, or by some one in his presence, at his direction, and, if not wholly written by himself, be attested by two or more credible witnesses, in his presence.

Libraries.

The Library is receiving constant additions of well selected works. The greater part of the large private Library of the Rev. Luther Halsey, D. D. formerly Professor in the Seminary, has also been deposited in the Institution for the special use of the Faculty, and is called "The Halsey Library." Total in both Libraries, 10,000 volumes.

General Remarks.

Abundant opportunities for Christian effort and usefulness are afforded in Sabbath Schools, Bible Classes, and Colportage, in the Cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, which, with the immediate suburbs, contain a population of about 150,000—Allegheny itself having nearly 30,000. There are 35 or 40 churches of the Presbyterian family in these cities and suburbs, besides many of the other Evangelical denominations. The Students do not form a separate congregation on the Sabbath, but connect themselves with one or other of the Congregations here, during their course of Study, and perform all the duties of regular Church Members. They thus have the great advantage of a complete pastoral training, and a most valuable experience, added to the attainment of piety and solid learning. The location of a Theological Seminary in the bounds of populous cities, is shown by actual results, to be even more beneficial, in preparation for the ministry, than a similar location for the Schools of Medicine and Law.

Allegheny City is at the head-waters of Western Navigation, and at the central terminus of the great thoroughfares connecting with all parts of the land. Students are thus brought into close contact with all the wide fields of labor, and with the earnest demand that comes up from all quarters for their ministerial services.

Summary of Studies.

First Year.—Hebrew Language.
Greek Exegesis.
Life of Christ.
Biblical History and Antiquities.
Mental and Moral Science.
Introduction to the Study of the Scriptures.
Biblical Criticism and Interpretation.
Lectures on Experimental and Practical Religion.
Introduction to Polemics.

Second Year.—Exegetical Study of the Hebrew and Greek Scriptures, continued.
Ecclesiastical History.
Composition and Delivery of Sermons.
Didactic Theology.
Polemic and Historical Theology.
Sacred Rhetoric.
Church Government.
Extemporaneous Speaking.

Third Year.—Didactic Theology, continued.
Sacred Rhetoric.
Pastoral Theology.
Exercises in Homiletics, continued.
History of the Presbyterian Church.
Church Government and Discipline.
Exegetical Study of the Scriptures, continued.
Pastoral Theology, completed.

Original Essays, and weekly exercises in Debating, and in Preaching without Notes, are required throughout the whole course, under the rules of the Institution.

Experienced teachers will give instruction in the Modern Languages, at the Student's expense.

Three years will embrace the full course, as prescribed by the General Assembly in the Original Plan of the Seminaries. Resident Graduates or Licentiates can attend upon any Studies or Lectures of the course, at their option. In addition to this, the Faculty have marked out a course of more advanced Studies and Exercises, through which they will carry such as please to spend a Fourth Year—which can be done advantageously.

Terms of Admission.

Every Student applying for admission into the Seminary shall produce satisfactory testimonials that he possesses good natural talents, and is of a prudent and discreet deportment; that he is in full communion with some Evangelical Church, that he has passed through a regular course of Academic study; or, wanting this, he shall submit himself to an examination in regard to the branches of literature taught in such a course.

Students coming from other Theological Seminaries, are required to present certificates of their good standing and regular dismission, before they can be received. Any who may have studied privately are expected to bring certificates from some member of the Presbytery under whose care they are, of their stage of progress, in order to their regular admission into the advanced classes.

Seminary Year.

There is but one session in the year, commencing on the Second Monday of September, and continuing to the Wednesday before the Fourth Tuesday of April. It is very desirable that every student be present at the opening of the Session.

Beatty Hall.

By the munificence of Mrs. Hetty E. Beatty, of Steubenville, Ohio, a new building has been completed, called "Beatty Hall," after the worthy donor. It contains eighty-one single rooms for study and lodging. All of these are carpeted. Each has an open grate, and the best arrangement for ventilation; is furnished with gas light, and with neat and suitable furniture, uniform throughout. Besides this, there are accommodations for thirty-two Students in the main building. Rooms in either of the Seminary Edifices are given to the Students free of rent.

Expenses.

There is no charge for Tuition. Fuel, $6.

Fee to the Contingent Fund, from eight to ten dollars. Board in private families is had, in ordinary times, at $2, and now at $2.75 to $4 per week.

There are Gymnasia in Pittsburgh and Allegheny, of which Students may become members.

Students can always receive a Scholarship of $120 to $150 per annum for the entire Course, either from the Board of Education or from the Scholarships of the Seminary, or from private Scholarships at the disposal of the Professors. Liberal friends of the Seminary have furnished the Professors with special Scholarships for all needy Students who apply; and have further authorized the assurance to all such as need only in part, that their need shall be supplied.

Students can sometimes aid themselves in part, by teaching an hour or two daily, in families or in schools, or by colportage, or by embracing similar remunerative opportunities that offer in these cities, under the direction of the Faculty.

Scholarships—Bequests.

Annual and Permanent Scholarships are greatly needed. The sum of $120 to $150 provides for one Student for one year. The sum of $2,000 to $2,500 endows a permanent Scholarship, which can be applied to any one whom the donor shall at any time name, or it can be left to the discretion of the Faculty.

Bequests in favor of the Seminary may be made in the following or similar form, to wit:

To "The Trustees of the Western Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America," a corporation located in Allegheny, Pennsylvania, and to its successors and assigns for ever, I give and bequeath the sum of — dollars (or, I give and devise a certain lot, &c.) for the uses and purposes of said corporation, according to the provisions of its charter, (or to be safely invested, by said corporation, in good real estate security,) and the interest accruing therefrom, to be applied, from time to time, in aid of indigent young men preparing for the Gospel ministry in said Seminary—or for such other special purposes as the testator may designate.

Pastoral Theology, completed.

Original Essays, and weekly exercises in Debating, and in Preaching without Notes, are required throughout the whole course, under the rules of the Institution.

Experienced teachers will give instruction in the Modern Languages, at the Student's expense.

Three years will embrace the full course, as prescribed by the General Assembly in the Original Plan of the Seminaries. Resident Graduates or Licentiates can attend upon any Studies or Lectures of the Course, at their option. In addition to this, the Faculty have marked out a course of more advanced Studies and Exercises, through which they will carry such as please to spend a Fourth Year—which can be done advantageously. The Seminary is open to students of other Evangelical denominations, for a full or partial Course.

Terms of Admission.

Every Student applying for admission into the Seminary shall produce satisfactory testimonials that he possesses good natural talents, and is of a prudent and discreet deportment; that he is in full communion with some Evangelical Church; that he has passed through a regular course of Academic study; or, wanting this he shall submit himself to an examination in the branches of literature taught in such a course, if the Diploma of this Institution be desired.

Students coming from other Theological Seminaries, are required to present certificates of their good standing and regular dismission, before they can be received. Any who may have studied privately are expected to bring certificates from some member of the Presbytery under whose care they are, of their stage of progress, in order to their regular admission into the advanced classes.

Seminary Year.

There is but one session in the year, commencing on the Second Monday of September, and continuing to the Wednesday before the Fourth Tuesday of April. It is very desirable that every student be present at the opening of the Session.

Beatty Hall.

By the munificence of Mrs. Hetty E. Beatty, of Steubenville, Ohio, a new building has been completed, called "Beatty Hall," after the worthy donor. The entire Edifice has been remodeled so as to provide ample single rooms for study and lodging. Each has an open stove, and the best arrangement for ventilation; is supplied with gas light, and with suitable furniture, uniform throughout. Besides this, there are accommodtions for thirty-two Students in the main building. Rooms in either of the Seminary Edifices are given to the Students free of rent.

Expenses.

There is no charge for Tuition. Fuel, $6.

Fee to the Contingent Fund, from eight to ten dollars. Board in private families is had, in ordinary times, at $2, and now at $2.75 to $4 per week.

There are Gymnasia in Pittsburgh and Allegheny, of which Students may become members.

Students can always receive a Scholarship of $160 to $200 per annum for the entire Course, either from the Board of Education or from the Scholarships of the Seminary, or from private Scholarships at the disposal of the Professors. Liberal friends of the Seminary have furnished the Professors with special Scholarships for all needy Students who apply; and have further authorized the assurance to all such as need only in part, that their want shall be supplied.

Students can sometimes aid themselves in part, by teaching an hour or two daily, in families or in schools, or by colportage, or by embracing similar remunerative opportunities that offer in these cities, under the direction of the Faculty.

Scholarships--Bequests.

Annual and Permanent Scholarships are greatly needed. The sum of $125 to $150 provides for one Student for one year. The sum of $2,000 to $2,500 endows a permanent Scholarship, which can be applied to any one whom the donor shall at any time name, or it can be left to the discretion of the Faculty.

Bequests in favor of the Seminary may be made in the following or similar form, to wit:

To "The Trustees of the Western Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America," a corporation located in Allegheny, Pennsylvania, and to its successors and assigns for ever, I give and bequeath the sum of — dollars (or, I give and devise a certain lot, &c.) for the uses and purposes of said corporation, according to the provisions of its charter (or to be safely invested, by said corporation, in good real estate security), and the interest accruing therefrom, to be applied, from time to time, in aid of indigent young men preparing for the Gospel ministry in said Seminary—or for such other special purposes as the testator may designate.

It is of course all-important that testamentary papers be executed in accordance with the law of the testator's domicil. Each State has its own statutory regulations. The law of Virginia, for example, requires that a last will and testament be signed by the testator, or by some one in his presence, at his direction, and, if not wholly written by himself, be attested by two or more credible witnesses, in his presence.

Libraries.

The Library is receiving constant additions of well selected works The greater part of the large private Library of the Rev. LUTHER HALSEY, D. D., formerly Professor in the Seminary, has also been deposited in the Institution for the special use of the Faculty, and is called "THE HALSEY LIBRARY." Total in both Libraries, over 10,000 volumes.

General Remarks.

Abundant opportunities for Christian effort and usefulness are afforded in Sabbath Schools, Bible Classes, and Colportage, in the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, which, with the immediate suburbs, contain a population of about 150,000—Allegheny itself having over 30,000. There are 35 or 40 churches of the Presbyterian family in these cities and suburbs, besides many of the other Evangelical denominations. The Students do not form a separate congregation on the Sabbath, but connect themselves with one or other of the Congregations here, during their course of Study, and perform all the duties of regular Church Members. They thus have the great advantage of a complete pastoral training, and a most valuable experience, added to the attainment of piety and solid learning. The location of a Theological Seminary in the bounds of populous cities, is shown, by actual results, to be even more beneficial, in preparation for the Ministry, than a similar location for the Schools of Medicine and Law.

Allegheny City is at the head-waters of Western Navigation, and at the central terminus of the great thoroughfares connecting with all parts of the land. Students are thus brought into close contact with all the wide fields of labor, and with the earnest demand that comes up from all quarters for their ministerial services.

Calendar for 1867.

Summary of Studies.

FIRST YEAR.

Hebrew Language, Greek Exegesis, (Gospels,) Biblical History and Antiquities, Mental and Moral Science, Introduction to the Study of the Scriptures, Biblical Criticism and Interpretation, Lectures on Experimental and Practical Religion, Introduction to Polemics, Life of Christ.

SECOND YEAR.

Exegetical Study of the Hebrew and Greek Scriptures continued, Ecclesiastical History, Composition and Delivery of Sermons, Didactic Theology, Polemic and Historical Theology, Sacred Rhetoric, Church Government commenced, Extemporaneous Speaking.

THIRD YEAR.

Original Essays, and weekly exercises in Debating, and in preaching without Notes, are required throughout the whole course, under the rules of the Institution.

Experienced teachers will give instruction, if desired, in the Modern Languages, at the Student's expense.

Three years will embrace the full course, as prescribed by the General Assembly in the Original Plan of the Seminaries. Resident Graduates or Licentiates can attend upon any Studies or Lectures of the Course, at their option.

Terms of Admission.

Every Student applying for admission into the Seminary shall produce satisfactory testimonials that he possesses good natural talents, and is of a prudent and discreet deportment; that he is in full communion with some Evangelical Church; that he has passed through a regular course of Academic study; or, wanting this, he shall submit himself to an examination in the branches of literature taught in such a course, if the Diploma of this Institution be desired.

Students coming from other Theological Seminaries are required to present certificates of their good standing and regular dismission, before they can be received. Any who may have studied privately are expected to bring certificates from some member of the Presbytery under whose care they are, of their stage of progress, in order to their regular admission into the advanced classes.

Seminary Year.

There is but one session in the year, commencing on the Second Monday of September, and continued to the Wednesday before the Fourth Tuesday of April. It is very desirable that every Student be present at the opening of the Session.

Beatty Hall.

By the munificence of Mrs. Hetty E. Beatty, of Steubenville, Ohio, a new building has been completed, called "Beatty Hall," after the worthy donor. The entire Edifice has been remodeled so as to provide ample single rooms for study and lodging. Each has an open stove or grate, and the best arrangements for ventilation, and is supplied with suitable furniture throughout. Besides this, there are accommodations for thirty-two Students in the main building. Rooms in either of the Seminary Edifices are given to the Students free of rent.

Expenses.

There is no charge for Tuition.

Fee to the Contingent Fund, including Fuel, from eighteen to twenty dollars. Board in private families is had at $3.00 to $4.00 per week.

There are Gymnasia accessible, of which Students may avail themselves.

Students can always receive a Scholarship of $150 to $175 per annum for the entire Course, either from the Board of Education, or from the Scholarships of the Seminary, or from private Scholarships at the disposal of the Professors.

Students in the need of it can sometimes aid themselves, in part, by teaching an hour or two daily, in families or in schools, or by colportage, or by embracing similar remunerative opportunities that offer in these cities, under the direction of the Faculty.

Scholarships--Bequests.

Annual and Permanent Scholarships are greatly needed. The sum of $200 provides for one Student for one year. The sum of $2,000 to $2,500 endows a permanent Scholarship, which can be applied to any one whom the donor shall at any time name, or it can be left to the discretion of the Faculty.

Libraries.

The Library is receiving constant additions of well selected works. The greater part of the large private Library of the Rev. LUTHER HALSEY, D. D., formerly Professor in the Seminary, has also been deposited in the Institution for the special use of the Faculty, and is called "THE HALSEY LIBRARY." Total in both Libraries, over 10,000 volumes.

The Society of Inquiry.

The Society of Religious Inquiry meets on the first Monday of every month. All the Students are understood to be members, and it is their duty to participate in the exercises. The chief object is to collect information in regard to the operations of Christian beneficence. At each sitting, reports are submitted by Committees of the Students, and a discourse is delivered by one of their number elected by themselves. An annual sermon or address is delivered at the close of the session by a minister whom the Students elect.

A reading room is open under the charge of this Society, and is furnished with leading secular and religious newspapers, and prominent Reviews, which are made accessible to all.

General Remarks.

Abundant opportunities for Christian effort and usefulness are afforded in Sabbath Schools, Bible Classes, and Colportage, in the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, which, with the immediate suburbs, contain a population of over 200,000—Allegheny itself having over 50,000. There are 35 or 40 churches of the Presbyterian family in these cities and suburbs, besides many of the other Evangelical denominations. The Students do not form a separate congregation on the Sabbath, but connect themselves with one or other of the Congregations here, during their Course of Study, and perform all the duties of regular Church Members. They thus have the great advantage of a complete pastoral training, and a most valuable experience, added to the attainment of piety and solid learning.

Calendar for 1869.

Hebrew Language, Greek Exegesis, (Gospels,) Biblical History and Antiquities, Mental and Moral Science, Introduction to the Study of the Scriptures, Biblical Criticism and Interpretation, Lectures on Experimental and Practical Religion, Introduction to Polemics, Life of Christ.

SECOND YEAR.

Exegetical Study of the Hebrew and Greek Scriptures continued, Ecclesiastical History, Composition and Delivery of Sermons, Didactic Theology, Polemic and Historical Theology, Sacred Rhetoric, Church Government commenced, Extemporaneous Speaking.

Original Essays, and Weekly exercises in Debating, and in Preaching without Notes, are required throughout the whole course, under the rules of the Institution.

Experienced teachers will give instruction, if desired, in the Modern Languages, at the Student's expense.

Three years will embrace the full course, as prescribed by the General Assembly in the Original Plan of the Seminaries. Resident Graduates or Licentiates can attend upon any Studies or Lectures of the Course, at their option.

Terms of Admission.

Every Student applying for admission into the Seminary shall produce satisfactory testimonials that he possesses good natural talents, and is of a prudent and discreet deportment; that he is in full communion with some Evangelical Church; that he has passed through a regalar course of Academic study; or, wanting this, he shall submit himself to an examination in the branches of literature taught in such a course, if the Diploma of this Institution be desired.

Students coming from other Theological Seminaries are required to present certificates of their good standing and regular dismission, before they can be received. Any who may have studied privately are expected to bring certificates from some member of the Presbytery under whose care they are, of their stage of progress, in order to their regular admission into the advanced classes.

Seminary Year.

There is but one session in the year, commencing on the Second Monday of September, and continued to the Wednesday before the Fourth Tuesday of April. It is very desirable that every Stndent be present at the opening of the Session.

Beatty Hall.

By the munificence of Mrs. Hetty E. Beatty, of Steubenville, Ohio, a new building has been completed, called "Beatty Hall," after the worthy donor. The entire Edifice has been remodeled so as to provide ample single rooms for study and lodging. Each has an open stove or grate, and the best arrangements for ventilation, and is supplied with suitable furniture throughout. Besides this, there are accommodations for thirty-two Students in the main building. Rooms in either of the Seminary Edifices are given to the Students free of rent.

Expenses.

There is no charge for Tuition.

Fee to the Contingent Fund, including Fuel, from eighteen to twenty dollars. Board in private families is had at $3.00 to $4.00 per week.

There are Gymnasia accessible, of which Students may avail themselves.

Students can always receive a Scholarship of $150 to $175 per annum for the entire Course, either from the Board of Education, or from the Scholarships of the Seminary, or from private Scholarships at the disposal of the Professors.

Students in the need of it can sometimes aid themselves, in part, by teaching an hour or two daily, in families or in schools, or by colportage, or by embracing similar remunerative opportunities that offer in these cities, under the direction of the Faculty.

Scholarships--Bequests.

Annual and Permanent Scholarships are greatly needed. The sum of $200 provides for one Student for one year. The sum of $2,500 to 3,000 endows a Permanent Scholarship, which can be applied to any one whom the donor shall at any time name, or it can be left to the discretion of the Faculty.

Libraries.

The Library is receiving constant additions of well selected works. The greater part of the large Library of the Rev. Luther Halsey, D. D., formerly Professor in the Seminary, has also been deposited in the Institution for the special use of the Faculty, and is called "The Halsey Library." Total in both Libraries, over 10,000 volumes.

The Society of Inquiry.

The Society of Religious Inquiry meets on the first Monday of every month. All the Students are understood to be members, and it is their duty to participate in the exercises. The chief object is to collect information in regard to the operations of Christian beneficence. At each sitting, reports are submitted by Committees of the Students, and a discourse is delivered by one of their number elected by themselves. An annual sermon or address is delivered at the close of the session by a minister whom the Students elect.

A reading room is open under the charge of this Society, and is furnished with leading secular and religious newspapers, and prominent Reviews, which are made accessible to all.

General Remarks.

Abundant opportunities for Christian effort and usefulness are afforded in Sabbath Schools, Bible Classes, and Colportage, in the Cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, which, with the immediate suburbs, contain a population of over 200,000—Allegheny itself having over 50,000. There are 35 or 40 churches of the Presbyterian family in these cities and suburbs, besides many of the other Evangelical denominations. The Students do not form a separate congregation on the Sabbath, but connect themselves with one or other of the Congregations here, during their Course of Study, and perform all the duties of regular Church Members. They thus have the great advantage of a complete pastoral training, and a most valuable experience, added to the attainment of piety and solid learning.

Original Essays, and Weekly exercises in Preaching without Notes, are required throughout the whole course, under the rules of the Institution.

At least four written Sermons and three Popular Lectures must be submitted for criticism during the course.

Experienced teachers will give instruction, if desired, in the Modern Languages, at the Student's expense.

Three years will embrace the full course, as prescribed by the General Assembly in the Original Plan of the Seminaries. Resident Graduates or Licentiates can attend upon any Studies or Lectures of the course, at their option.

TERMS OF ADMISSION.

Every Student applying for admision into the Seminary, shall produce satisfactory testimonials that he possesses good natural talents, and is of a prudent and discreet deportment; that he is in full communion with some Evangelical Church; that he has passed through a regular course of Academic study; or, lacking this, he shall submit himself to an examination in the branches of literature taught in such a course, if the Diploma of this Institution be desired.

In order to obtain a Diploma, it is necessary that the Student shall have fulfilled the course of three years in a regular Theological Seminary, and shall have passed at least two examinations, one of which must be at the close of the third term in this Institution; or in default of this, a certificate will be given, signed by the Faculty, reciting the facts of the case.

Students coming from other Theological Seminaries are required to present certificates of their good standing and regular dismission, before they can be received. Any who may have studied privately are expected to bring a certificate from some member of the Presbytery under whose care they are, of their stage of progress, in order to their regular admission into the advanced classes.

SEMINARY YEAR.

There is but one Session in the year, commencing on the Second Monday of September, and continued till the Wednesday before the Fourth Tuesday of April. It is very desirable that every Student be present at the opening of the Session.

BEATTY HALL.

By the munificence of Mrs. Hetty E. Beatty, of Steubenville, Ohio, a building has been erected, called "Beatty Hall," after the worthy donor. The entire edifice has been remodelled so as to provide ample single rooms for study and lodging. Each has an open grate, and the best arrangements for ventilation. Besides this, there are accommodations for thirty-two Students in the main Building. Rooms in either of the Seminary edifices are given to the Students, free of rent. They have been recently furnished, by the ladies of the churches, with carpet, bedstead, bed and bedding, wardrobe, tables, chairs, and washstand, and are in complete order.

EXPENSES.

There is no charge for Tuition, nor for Room.

Fee to the Contingent Fund, including Fuel, from eighteen to twenty dollars. Board in private families is had at $3.00 to $4.00 per week.

Students can always receive a Scholarship of $150 to $175 per annum for the entire Course, either from the Board of Education, or from the Scholarships of the Seminary, or from private Scholarships at the disposal of the Professors.

Students in need of it, can often aid themselves, in part, by teaching an hour or two daily, in families or in schools; or by embracing similar remunerative opportunities that offer in these cities, under the direction of the Faculty.

SCHOLARSHIPS—BEQUESTS.

Annual and Permanent Scholarships are greatly needed. The sum of $200 provides for one Student for one year. The sum of $3,000 endows a Permanent Scholarship, which can be applied to any one whom the donor shall at any time name, or it can be left to the discretion of the Faculty.

All Donations or Bequests to the Seminary should be made to "The Trustees of the Western Theological Seminary, of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America," located in Allegheny, Penn'a. The objects may be designated at the pleasure of the donor: either the Permanent Fund, which is for the support of the Professors; the Scholarship Fund, which is for the aid of needy Students; the Contingent Fund, to provide for repairs and contingent expenses; the Library Fund, to purchase books, or to meet other expenses of the Library, or for the building of a Fire-Proof Library Hall.

LIBRARIES.

HEBREW PRIZES.

CARTER PRIZE.

A knowledge of the Hebrew Language is not required for admission to the Junior Class, but students are carefully instructed in the Grammar during the first term; yet, in order to promote the study of the language prior to entering the Seminary, Messrs. ROBERT CARTER & BROS., of New York, will present to the Student who, upon entering upon the course, shall pass the best examination in Green's Elementary Grammar, with the Reading lessons—the following works selected by them, viz.: Pool's Annotations on the Bible, Kitto's Bible Illustrations, Haldane on Romans, Hodge on Ephesians, Hodge on Corinthians, Jacobus on the Gospels, Jacobus on Acts, Jacobus on Genesis, Hodge's Essays and Reviews, A. A. Hodge's Outlines of Theology, and Horne's Introduction to the Scriptures—or, in lieu of these, such other of their publications, as the Student may select, to the value of fifty dollars. Also, to the second and third in merit, if satisfactory, they will present their publications, to the value of ten dollars. The Examination for these Prizes is to take place on Thursday, September 14, 1871.

SCRIBNER PRIZE.

Messrs. C. SCRIBNER & Co., New York, will also present to the Student now in the Seminary, who shall stand the most satisfactory examination on the last five chapters of Isaiah—chapters 62–66—on the grammatical forms and exegesis, with the proofs of Messianic reference as against non-Messianic interpetation, fifty dollars' worth of their valuable publications, such as Lange, Alexander, &c., to be selected by the Student; and ten dollars' worth each to the second and third in merit. The examination is to take place on the second Monday of the Term, September 18th.

THE SOCIETY OF INQUIRY.

The Society of Religious Inquiry meets on the first Monday of every month. All the Students are understood to be members, and it is their duty to participate in the exercises. The chief object is to collect information in regard to the operations of Christian beneficence. At each sitting Reports are submitted by Committees of the Students, and a Discourse is delivered by one of their number, elected by themselves. There is also an annual Sermon or address at the close of the session by a Minister whom the Students elect.

A Reading room is open under the charge of this Society, and is furnished with leading secular and religious newspapers and prominent Reviews, which are made accessible to all.

GENERAL REMARKS.

Abundant opportunities for Christian effort and usefulness are afforded in Sabbath Schools, Bible Classes, and Colportage, in the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, which, with the immediate suburbs, contain a population of over 200,000—Allegheny itself having over 50,000. STUDIES.

FIRST YEAR.

Hebrew Language (Green's Grammar and Chrestomathy), Biblical History and Antiquities, Mental and Moral Science, Introduction to the Study of the Scriptures, Biblical Criticism and Interpretation, Lectures on Experimental and Practical Religion, Introduction to Polemics, Special Introduction to the Gospels, Greek Exegesis—Gospel by John.

SECOND YEAR.

Exegetical Study of the Hebrew and Greek Scriptures continued, Paul's Epistles, Messianic Idea of the Old Testament traced—Pentateuch, Psalms, Minor Prophets—Ecclesiastical History, Didactic Theology, Polemic and Historical Theology, Composition and Delivery of Sermons, Sacred Rhetoric, Church Government commenced, Extemporary Speaking.

THIRD YEAR.

Hebrew, Prophets—Special Introduction, Exegetical Study of the Scriptures continued—Isaiah, Epistles, Didactic Theology continued, Polemic and Historical Theology continued, Church Government completed, Sacred Rhetoric, Exercises in Homiletics continued, Ecclesiastical History continued, History of the Presbyterian Church, Pastoral Theology.

Original Essays, and Weekly exercises in Preaching without Notes, are required throughout the whole course, under the rules of the Institution.

At least four written Sermons and three Popular Lectures must be submitted for criticism during the course.

Experienced teachers will give instruction, if desired, in the Modern Languages, at the Student's expense.

Three years will embrace the full course, as prescribed by the General Assembly in the Original Plan of the Seminaries. Resident Graduates or Licentiates can attend upon any Studies or Lectures of the course, at their option.

TERMS OF ADMISSION.

Every Student applying for admission into the Seminary, shall produce satisfactory testimonials that he possesses good natural talents, and is of a prudent and discreet deportment; that he is in full communion with some Evangelical Church; that he has passed through a regular course of Academic study; or, lacking this, he shall submit himself to an examination in the branches of literature taught in such a course, if the Diploma of this Institution be desired.

In order to obtain a Diploma, it is necessary that the Student shall have fulfilled the course of three years in a regular Theological Seminary, and shall have passed at least two examinations, one of which must be at the close of the third term in this Institution; or in default of this, a certificate will be given, signed by the Faculty, reciting the facts of the case.

Students coming from other Theological Seminaries are required to present certificates of their good standing and regular dismission, before they can be received. Any who may have studied privately are expected to bring a certificate from some member of the Presbytery under whose care they are, of their stage of progress, in order to their regular admission into the advanced classes.

SEMINARY YEAR.

There is but one Session in the year, commencing on the Second Monday of September, and continued till the Wednesday before the Fourth Tuesday of April. It is very desirable that every Student be present at the opening of the Session, when the rooms are allotted.

BEATTY HALL.

By the munificence of Mrs. Hetty E. Beatty, of Steubenville, Ohio, a building has been erected, called "Beatty Hall," after the worthy donor. The entire edifice has been remodeled so as to provide ample single rooms for study and lodging. Each has an open grate, and the best arrangements for ventilation. Besides this, there are accommodations for thirty-two Students in the main Building. Rooms in either of the Seminary edifices are given to the Students, free of rent. They have been recently furnished, by the ladies of the churches, with carpet, bedstead, bed and bedding, wardrobe, tables, chairs, and washstand, and are in complete order.

EXPENSES.

There is no charge for Tuition, nor for Room.

Fee to the Contingent Fund, including Fuel, is from eighteen to twenty dollars. Board in private families is had at $3.50 to $4.00 per week.

Students can always receive a Scholarship of $150 to $175 per annum for the entire Course, either from the Board of Education, or from the Scholarships of the Seminary, or from private Scholarships at the disposal of the Professors.

Students in need can often aid themselves, in part, by teaching an hour or two daily, in families or in schools; or by embracing similar remunerative opportunities that offer in these cities, under the direction of the Faculty.

SCHOLARSHIPS—BEQUESTS.

Annual and Permanent Scholarships are greatly needed. The sum of $200 provides for one Student for one year. The sum of $3,000 endows a Permanent Scholarship, which can be applied to any one whom the donor shall at any time name, or it can be left to the discretion of the Faculty.

All Donations or Bequests to the Seminary should be made to "The Trustees of the Western Theological Seminary, of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, located in Allegheny," Penn'a. The objects may be designated at the pleasure of the donor: either the Permanent Fund, which is for the support of the Professors; the Scholarship Fund, which is for the aid of needy Students; the Contingent Fund, to provide for repairs and contingent expenses; the Library Fund, to purchase books, or to meet other expenses of the Library.

LIBRARIES.

HEBREW PRIZES.

CARTER PRIZE.

A knowledge of the Hebrew Language is not required for admission to the Junior Class, but students are carefully instructed in the Grammar during the first term; yet, in order to promote the study of the language prior to entering the Seminary, Messrs. ROBERT CARTER & BROS., of New York, will present to the Student who, on entering shall pass the best examination in Green's Elementary Grammar, with the Reading lessons—the following selected works, viz: Pool's Annotations on the Bible, Kitto's Bible Illustrations, Haldane on Romans, Hodge on Ephesians, Hodge on Corinthians, Jacobus on the Gospels, Jacobus on Acts, Jacobus on Genesis, Hodge's Essays and Reviews, A. A. Hodge's Outlines of Theology, and Horne's Introduction to the Scriptures—or, in lieu of these, such other of their publications, as the Student may select, to the value of fifty dollars. Also, to the second and third in merit, if satisfactory, they will present their publications, to the value of ten dollars. The Examination for these Prizes is to take place on the second Tuesday of the Term.

SCRIBNER PRIZE.

Messrs. C. SCRIBNER & Co., New York, will also present to the Student now in the Seminary, who shall stand the most satisfactory examination on the last five chapters of Isaiah—chapters 62–66—on the grammatical forms and exegesis, with the proofs of Messianic reference as against non-Messianic interpretation, fifty dollars' worth of their valuable publications, such as Lange, Alexander, &c., to be selected by the Student; and ten dollars' worth each to the second and third in merit. The examination is to take place on the second Monday of the Term.

THE SOCIETY OF INQUIRY.

The Society of Religious Inquiry meets on the first Friday of every month. All the Students are understood to be members, and it is their duty to participate in the exercises. The chief object is to collect information in regard to the operations of the Church. At each sitting Reports are submitted by Committees of the Students, or a Discourse is delivered by one of their number, elected by themselves. There is also an annual Sermon or Address at the close of the session by a Minister whom the Students may elect.

A Reading room is open under the charge of this Society, and is furnished with leading secular and religious newspapers and prominent Reviews, which are made accessible to all.

GENERAL REMARKS.

The Students do not form a separate congregation on the Sabbath, but connect themselves with one or other of the congregations here during their course of study, and perform all the duties of regular church members, join in the Social Prayer Meeting, and in the Sabbath School work. They have thus the great advantage of a complete Pastoral training and a most valuable experience, added to the attainment of piety and solid learning.

EXAMINATION.

The Examining Committee of the Directors for the current Session are, Rev. Jas. Eells, D. D., Rev. Alex. Donaldson, D. D., Rev. D. X. Junkin, D. D., Geo. A. Berry, Esq., Thos. M'Kennan, M. D., Jas. Schoonmaker, Esq.

The examination for these Prizes is to take place on the second Tuesday of the Term.

SCRIBNER PRIZE.

Messrs SCRIBNER, ARMSTRONG & Co., New York, will also present to the Student now in the Seminary, who shall stand the most satisfactory examination on the last five chapters of Isaiah—Chapters 62–66—on the grammatical forms and exegesis, with the proofs of Messianic reference as against non-Messianic interpretation, FIFTY DOLLARS' worth of their valuable publications, such as Lange, Alexander, &c., to be selected by the Student; and TEN DOLLARS' worth each to the second and third in merit. The examination is to take place on the second Monday of the Term.

THE SOCIETY OF INQUIRY.

The Society of Religious Inquiry meets on the first Friday of every month. All the Students are understood to be members, and it is their duty to participate in the exercises. The chief object is to collect information in regard to the operations of the Church. At each sitting Reports are submitted by Committees of the Students, or a discourse is delivered by one of their number, elected by themselves. There is also an Annual Sermon, or Address, at the close of the Session, by a Minister whom the Students may elect.

A Reading-Room is open, under the charge of this Society, and is furnished with leading secular and religious newspapers, and prominent Reviews, which are made accessible to all.

GENERAL REMARKS.

The Students do not form a separate congregation on the Sabbath, but connect themselves with one or other of the congregations here, during their course of study, and perform all the duties of regular church members, join in the Social Prayer Meeting, and in the Sabbath-School work. They have thus the great advantage of a complete Pastoral training, and a most valuable experience, added to the attainment of piety and solid learning.
